September 2

Dear Naoko,

How are you? Thanks for the photos. They're great! I'll send you some chocolates from England. I hope you like them. It has been a month since I came back to London from Japan. I started school today. It was strange to go back to school here because everybody speaks English! I had to talk about studying in Japan in front of the class. I was really nervous, but everyone listened, so I was happy.

Thank you for everything. I enjoyed living with you and your family. I want to eat your dad's delicious food again. He's a very good cook. I also liked playing tennis with you in the park every day. I'm really sad to be far away from your dog Cherry. Do you remember the picnic at the river? It was so funny when Cherry jumped into the water. She didn't come out, so we had to go in and get her. We got really wet, and we couldn't stop laughing.

Guess what? My parents gave me a big birthday surprise. They bought me a dog! I told them about Cherry in my letters. My mom and dad both love dogs, too. They didn't want me to be sad when I came back. My dog's name is Apple. She looks like Cherry, but she's brown, not black. Also, she runs around a lot because she's still a puppy. I'll send you some photos soon. Maybe Apple and Cherry will become friends someday.

Write back soon!
Natalie

A Delicious Cookie

A chocolate chip cookie is a cookie with pieces of chocolate. It is a favorite snack for people of all ages, and there is an interesting story about this cookie.

Ruth Graves Wakefield was born in 1903 in the United States. After graduating from university, she worked as a cooking teacher. Then, she and her husband bought an old building. Before, it was a hotel for travelers on long trips. They changed it into a restaurant called the Toll House Inn.

Ruth was a really good cook. People came from far away to try the delicious food at her restaurant. One day in 1930, she was making chocolate cookies. At that time, people cooked with a special type of chocolate called baking chocolate. Ruth found out that she didn't have any more baking chocolate. She didn't know what to do. Then, she had an idea. She cut a chocolate bar into small pieces and put them into the cookies. She thought the chocolate would melt* in the oven.*

When Ruth tried the cookies, she was surprised. The chocolate pieces were still there. She gave the cookies to people in town, and they loved them. In 1936, she wrote a book with her recipe* in it. That made the cookies famous.

A food company called Nestlé sold a lot of chocolate chips because many people made these cookies. Nestlé put Ruth's recipe on its bags of chocolate chips in 1939. Because of this, Ruth received free chocolate chips for her whole life. Now, people around the world like eating chocolate chip cookies.
