From: Jun Nakashima
To: Emily Banks
Date: December 10, 2013 11:18
Subject: Question about the New Year

Dear Emily,

How are you today? I'm enjoying my first month in London. I'm happy I came here to study English. I hope my English gets better! I want to ask you something. I have to write about English culture for my school in Japan. It's part of a project. What do English people do for the New Year's holiday? In Japan, it's a very important holiday. Many shops are closed for a few days. We spend time at home with our families and eat special food. People send cards to their friends and families. We also visit shrines* for good luck. What about you?

See you,
Jun

Subject: New Year in London

Dear Jun,

How are you? Sorry I took so long to write back. I was in France on a school trip with my history class. Your English is already good! In London, the New Year's holiday is really fun. On December 31, many people go to parties in the evening. Other people go out to restaurants. Also, in the center of London, there is a really big fireworks* show at night. It's really cold, but thousands of people stand outside to watch it. The next day, most people just relax. Many shops are closed for only one day in England. This year, I'm having a party at home, with some fireworks in the garden. We'll eat pizza and play games. Do you want to come? You can tell us more about the Japanese New Year then.

Write back soon,

Emily

*shrine : 神社 じんじや

*fireworks : 花火 はなび

(28) Why did Jun write to Emily?

- 1 To ask about the New Year's holiday in England.
- 2 To ask about her trip to Japan.
- 3 To ask her to teach him English.
- 4 To ask her to come to his party.

(29) Why did Emily take a long time to write back?

- 1 She was studying with her French class.
- 2 She was visiting her friend in London.
- 3 She was on holiday in Japan.
- 4 She was on a school trip.

(30) In London, on the night of December 31, many people stand outside because

- 1 the shops open early the next day.
- 2 there are pizza parties on the streets.
- 3 there is a fireworks show.
- 4 the weather is really warm.

Rick Hansen

Rick Hansen is one of Canada's most famous athletes.* He has won many prizes in wheelchair* races and other wheelchair sports. He has also done many things to help other people with disabilities.*

Rick was born in British Columbia in 1957. He was very good at sports when he was young, and his dream was to be in the Olympics. But when he was 15, Rick was in a car accident. Because of the accident, he could not walk, and he had to use a wheelchair. After high school, Rick went to university and first played wheelchair basketball, wheelchair volleyball, and other wheelchair sports there. He was very good at these sports, and he won many prizes. After graduating from university, he won six medals in wheelchair racing at the Paralympic Games in 1980 and 1984.

In 1985, Rick began a trip around the world called the "Man in Motion World Tour." He pushed himself in his wheelchair 40,000 kilometers across 34 countries. He traveled about 84 kilometers a day. The tour took two years and was very hard. Rick did this tour to collect money for people with disabilities. He also wanted others to understand people with disabilities better. The tour was a big success. It collected $26 million to help people with disabilities, and people around the world learned more about people in wheelchairs.

In 1997, Rick started the Rick Hansen Foundation. This group helps people with disabilities in many ways. Rick's hard work has changed many people's lives and will help people in the future.
