

Eiken Grade G2 Speaking 2017-3A

Online Reviews

Today, it is common for people to give pinions online about products and services. These online reviews help consumers decide what products to buy. Sometimes, however, people write reviews that include false information. Some consumers believe such reviews, and as a result they buy products that are different from their expectations. People should be careful when using online information.

Your story should begin with this sentence: One day, Mr. and Mrs. Nakata were at a bookstore.

- No. 1 According to the passage, why do some consumers buy products that are different from their expectations?
- No. 2 Now, please look at the picture and describe the situation. You have 20 seconds to prepare. Your story should begin with the sentence on the card.
<20 seconds>
Please begin.

Now, Mr./Ms. _____, please turn the card over and put it down.

- No. 4 Some people say that people today spend too much time using smartphones. What do you think about that?
- No. 5 In Japan, many students wear school uniforms. Do you think schools should make students wear uniforms?
Yes. → Why?
No. → Why not?

No. 1 Because they believe reviews that include false information.

No. 2 One day, Mr. and Mrs. Nakata were at a bookstore. Mr. Nakata said to his wife, "The newspaper says this book is good." A few minutes later, Mr. Nakata found the book on the shelf. Mrs. Nakata was thinking of asking a clerk to get the book for them. That night, Mr. Nakata fell asleep on the sofa. Mrs. Nakata was thinking of putting a blanket on him.

No. 3 I agree. Many people use their smartphones until late at night. They often have trouble waking up for school or work.

I disagree. People know that smartphones aren't good for their eyes. They only use them for important things.

No. 4 Yes. → School uniforms help students feel proud of their schools. Also, students in uniforms usually behave well.

No. → School uniforms are often uncomfortable to wear. Also, many students want to decide what to wear themselves.