

Eiken Grade GP2 Speaking 2017-3A

Volunteers at Libraries

These days, many students take part in volunteer activities for their communities. For example, volunteer activities at libraries are attracting attention. Student volunteers read stories to children, and by doing so they help them become more interested in books. Such activities will probably become more popular in the future.

No. 1 According to the passage, how do student volunteers help children to become more interested in books?

No. 2 Now, please look at the people in Picture A. They are doing different things. Tell me as much as you can about what they are doing.

No. 3 Now look at the woman in Picture B. Please describe the situation.

Now, Mr./Ms. _____, please turn the card over and put it down.

No. 4 Do you think towns and cities should have more libraries?

Yes. → Why?

No. → Why not?

No. 5 These days, many people like to grow flowers or vegetables. Are you interested in gardening?

Yes. → Please tell me more.

No. → Why not?

- No. 1 By reading stories to children.
- No. 2 A man is closing the window.
A girl is drawing a picture.
A boy is throwing away trash.
A woman is pushing a can.
A girl is using a photocopier machine.
- No. 3 She can't open the door because she's carrying many books.
- No. 4 Yes. → Libraries are good places for people to study. Also, we can borrow not only books but also music and movies.
No. → Building libraries is very expensive. Town and cities should use that money for other services.
- No. 5 Yes. → Taking care of flowers is very relaxing. I often help my family in the garden.
No. → I don't like getting my hands dirty. It's hard work to grow vegetables.