A New Way to Help Others

Jogging has become a popular activity with people of all generations. Many joggers also participate in long-distance races. Nowadays, people who plan these events are using them to help others. For example, they organize races that raise money for charity. Joggers take part in such races, and by doing so they can keep themselves healthy and help others at the same time.

Your story should begin with this sentence: One day, Yuki and Ken saw a lot of garbage while jogging on the beach.

- No. 1 According to the passage, how can joggers keep themselves healthy and help others at the same time?
