

Eiken Grade P2 2014-3A

Outlet Malls

Today, there are many outlet malls in Japan. These malls are usually outside city centers and have large parking areas. People can buy clothing and other goods at cheaper prices. Some outlet malls build parks with rides and games for children, and by doing so they try to attract families.

A

B

- No. 1 According to the passage, how do some outlet malls try to attract families?
- No. 2 Now, please look at the people in Picture A. They are doing different things. Tell me as much as you can about what they are doing.
- No. 3 Now, look at the woman in Picture B. Please describe the situation.

Now Mr./Ms. _____, please turn the card over and put it down.

- No. 4 Do you think more people will buy used clothes, such as used jackets and shirts in the future?
Yes → Why?
No → Why not?
- No. 5 Some people like to do their homework with their friends. Do you like to do your homework in a group?
Yes. → Please tell me more.
No. → Why Not?

- No. 1 By building parks with rides and games for children.
- No. 2 Two women are waving to each other.
A man is cleaning a window.
A girl is drawing a picture.
A man is wrapping a box.
A woman is choosing a bag.
- No. 3 She can't get on the elevator because it's too crowded.
- No. 4 Yes. Used clothes are much cheaper than new ones. Also, many used clothes look new.

No. Many people don't like to wear old clothes. Also, popular fashions change almost every year.
- No. 5 Yes. It's more fun to study in a group. Also, I can ask my friends for help with my homework.

No. I can finish my homework faster by myself. I don't study well with other people.