My parents and I will travel to Japan during our Christmas vacation. I hope we can see you then! How far is Yamanashi from Tokyo? Love,

Dear Kelly,

What great news! My parents and I want to invite you to our home in Yamanashi during your trip. I really want you to come here for New Year's Day. It takes a few hours to get to Yamanashi from Tokyo by train or car.

Everything is fine here. I have a lot of tests next week at school, so I'm studying very hard. Two weeks ago, my school had a festival. I'm in the English club, and we sold tea and cookies at the festival to raise* money for our club. We made 6,500 yen. I used the cookie recipe you sent me in the summer. Everyone loved the cookies.

See you,
Saeko

London's Bicycles

There are many ways to travel around London, England. The subway train system, the Tube, is famous because it is quick, and people can use the Internet for free at all 270 stations in the city. But some people think it is too expensive to ride. Also, it is often crowded and hot, and people can't see much through the windows. Now, many people get around by bicycle.

Today, people who need bicycles can rent* them. This started in July 2010. A big bank gave money to the city to buy the bicycles. At the time, Boris Johnson was the mayor* of London, so people called the bicycles Boris Bikes.

People can rent bicycles in London at any time of the day or night. People can find them at places called docking stations. First, people pay money to rent a bicycle. Then, they get a number to unlock* it. After using the bicycle, people can return it to any docking station. If the bike ride is less than 30 minutes, people don't have to pay any more money.

When the bicycle service started, there were 5,000 bicycles and 315 docking stations in London. In 2012, there were about 8,000 bicycles and 570 docking stations. During the 2012 London Olympics, bicycles were rented 47,105 times on just one day.

People use the bicycles for different reasons. Visitors to London think they are a cheap way to see the city. Many people who work there think cycling is healthy and better for the environment, too.

From: Dennis Wagner
To: Steve Taggart
Date: April 4
Subject: Poster contest

Hi Steve,

I wanted to talk to you after school today, but I didn't see you. Did you hear about the contest to design a poster for the school festival? Let's do one together. I have an idea for it. We can draw some mountains with a rainbow in the sky. What do you think? What is your club going to do at the festival? Our baseball club is going to cook some Chinese food. We hope to make a lot of money so we can buy new uniforms.

Write back soon,
Dennis

From: Steve Taggart
To: Dennis Wagner
Date: April 4
Subject: I'm sorry!

Hi Dennis,

Sorry I couldn't see you after school. I went to the gym after my last class because I had dance practice. We're practicing hard because we're going to perform at the festival. Today, we practiced for four hours! My mom was angry because I didn't say I'd be home late. I'd love to help you with the poster, but I'll be too busy practicing for the festival. I have to study for my tests, too. You're a great artist, so I'm sure you can make a nice poster by yourself. Your idea sounds interesting.

See you tomorrow,
Steve

From: Dennis Wagner

Hi Steve,

See you later,
Dennis

Visiting Uruguay

The country of Uruguay in South America is a fun place to be during the months of February and March. During that time, there is a festival called Carnival. Carnival is held in many countries around the world. But in Uruguay, Carnival has its own special musical performance.

At that time of the year, it is summer in Uruguay. Everybody goes into the streets, from old people to children. There are people dancing, singing, and playing a special kind of music. This kind of dance and music is called murga.

People do murga performances in groups. The biggest groups have 17 people. They wear funny clothes with lots of colors. They play the drums and sing. The members of the groups are not professional singers or dancers. They are people with other jobs. Each group prepares and practices their own dance and songs for months. Then, they try to be the best group at the festival. Each group's dance and songs last about 45 minutes. The songs are stories about important people or events in the news, so people think watching murga is like watching a play at the theater.

Uruguay is a small country with just 3.5 million people. More than half of them live in the capital city, Montevideo. So the biggest festival at that time of the year is there.
