From : Harry Yates
To : Barbara Yates
Date : July 18
Subject : I can't wait!

Dear Aunt Barbara,
How are you? Mom said you're coming to visit next month for one week. I can't wait to see you! We got a new cat last month, and her name is Pepper. We named her that because she's black and gray. I think you'll like her. She loves to play, and she's very cute. While you're here, could you please help me with one thing? I have to give a speech in Japanese in front of my whole school in September. I'm so nervous. I've started writing my speech, but it's really difficult. Could you help me with it? Mom says you studied Japanese when you were at college, so I'm sure you're very good.
See you soon,
Harry

From: Barbara Yates
To: Harry Yates
Date: July 19
Subject: Sure!

Hi Harry,
I'm looking forward to seeing you next month, too. And I'd love to help you with your Japanese speech. Let's do some other things while I'm visiting, too. How about going to the science museum in Grand City? One of my friends has a part-time job there. If she's not busy, she'll be able to give us a special tour. Also, I can't wait to meet Pepper. She sounds lovely. Your mom and I had a cat when we were kids, too. His name was Tiger, but he wasn't orange and black. He was white. He looked like a white tiger that your mom saw at the zoo, so she thought Tiger was a good name for him.
See you next month,
Barbara

- (23) What does Harry ask his aunt to do?
- 1 Help him with his Japanese speech.
 - 2 Choose a name for his new pet.
 - 3 Look after his cat for one week.
 - 4 Tell him about her college life.
- (24) Who works at the science museum?
- 1 Harry.
 - 2 Harry's mother.
 - 3 Harry's aunt.
 - 4 Harry's aunt's friend.
- (25) Why did Harry's mother name her cat Tiger?
- 1 He looked like a white tiger.
 - 2 She found him outside the zoo.
 - 3 He was orange and black.
 - 4 He loved to play.

Sally Ride

Sally Ride was the first American woman to go into space. She was born in California in 1951. When she was growing up, she loved math, science, and tennis. In high school, she became a very good tennis player. In fact, she was one of the best players in America. At that time, she wanted to become a professional tennis player. She practiced hard every day for months, but then she changed her mind. She decided to go to college instead.

Sally went to Stanford University. There, she studied science and English. Later, she got a Ph.D.* in astrophysics.* Then, in 1977, she read an advertisement* in the newspaper. It said NASA* was looking for people who wanted to become astronauts. Sally wanted the job, and she got it. She went to the Johnson Space Center in Houston, Texas, and trained to become an astronaut.

In 1983, Sally was able to go into space. Russia sent women into space in 1963 and 1982, but Sally was the first American woman to go. Her second and final trip to space was in 1984. She worked for NASA for several more years, and then she worked at Stanford University. Later, she had her own company called Sally Ride Science, and she also wrote several books.

Sadly, Sally died in 2012. However, many people remember the important things she did. In fact, in 2013, President Barack Obama gave her a special award. Also, two elementary schools are named after her. Sally is still a hero for many people.
