A Special Lesson

Eddie is a high school student from Canada. He came to Japan and stayed with the Saito family in Yokohama for two weeks.

On the first day of his visit, Mrs. Saito made a special Japanese dinner at home. She asked Eddie, "Can you use chopsticks?" Eddie answered, "No, I can't." Mrs. Saito said to Eddie, "I'll show you. Look at my fingers." Eddie watched Mrs. Saito's fingers. Then, Mrs. Saito asked Eddie, "Can you do it, too?" Eddie tried it. "That's right! Very good!" said Mrs. Saito. Slowly, Eddie learned to use chopsticks.

On his last night in Japan, the Saito family took Eddie to a sushi restaurant. The chef* asked Eddie, "Do you want a fork?" Eddie said, "No, thank you. I can use chopsticks." Eddie had a very good time in Japan. He hopes to come back again in the future.
