The Wrestling Contest

Kazuya is a high school student in Tokyo. He loves sports. Two years ago, he joined the wrestling team at his school. He has practice every day after school. He never has practice on Saturdays and Sundays. One day, Kazuya's friend said, "Kazuya, you are the strongest wrestler on our team." Kazuya was very happy.

Last August, Kazuya's team went to a national* wrestling contest in Gunma. Over 400 wrestlers came from all around Japan. Kazuya's grandparents live in Gunma, so Kazuya's father stayed at their house. He went to watch Kazuya's and his team's matches.

At the contest, Kazuya won all of his matches. He was number one in Japan for high school wrestling. His father asked, "How do you feel?" Kazuya answered, "I feel good, but I'm tired."

After the contest, the team went to a restaurant for dinner. They ate steak and salad, and then went home.
