_ Yes, I think it's important to have a good memory. _Firstly, having a good memory is very convenient to remember all the things we need to remember. Like for example, the effects of remembering the good events that had happened in our life would make us happy. _And secondly, activities such as studying and learning seem much easier if our memory is good especially in terms of memorizing vocabularies and some information that is needed to remember. _Therefore, having good memories is very important and would have good effects in our life.92words
