

For Teachers: Please have the students read the sentences one at a time and correct their pronunciation of each sentence then have them repeat after you. Wait until after they read the sentence (use the number in place of the missing word) to have the students choose the correct answer to fill in the blank. When the students finish the article, move on to the further questions.

Dear Ms. Cooper,

Thank you ^{送(おく) ってくれて} for taking me to see the three apartments in ^{よい景色(けしき) の} Fairview yesterday.

I have decided to ^{決(き)めた} take ^{選(えら)ぶ} the one in Stanley ^{一區画(ひとくかく)} Court .

It is ^{近(ちか)い} close to my office and the rent of $800 a month seems ^{～だろう 適度(てきど) な値段(ねだん)} reasonable .

You said that I could ^{引越(ひっこ)す} move ^{いつでも} in anytime because the apartment until November 30, so that would be the best date for me.

Further Questions&A

*Ask student to answer the question on their own at first. If the student can't answer correctly, have him look at the last page and read the "example answer" for the question. Have the student try to memorize the answer, if it's too long or difficult, you should divide the sentence into 2 or 3 parts to make it easier to remember. Once they have memorized the answer, the teacher should ask the question one last time so that the student can practice answering. Also if you find any mistakes, please mark the page and let me know ASAP.
