Dear Charlie,

How are you? It's been a long time since I last heard from you. I thought we would see each other a lot in the fall because we go to college in the same city, but I guess we've both been too busy studying. I'm really enjoying college, but I miss our high school days together, especially Mr. West's art class!

Further Questions

*Ask student to answer the question on their own at first. If the student can't answer correctly, have him look at the last page and read the "example answer" for the question. Have the student try to memorize the answer, if it's too long or difficult, you should divide the sentence into 2 or 3 parts to make it easier to remember. Once they have memorized the answer, the teacher should ask the question one last time so that the student can practice answering. Also if you find any mistakes, please mark the page and let me know ASAP.

Yesterday, I saw a poster for a special exhibition at the City Art Museum. Since you're studying art history like I am, I thought it would be nice to go together. The exhibition is showing art by an American artist, Max Baker, who is known for his painting of Central City in the early 1990s. I'm mostly interested in Asian art, but I'd like to go anyway.

If you're interested, we could meet in front of the museum around 10 a.m. on Sunday. We'd have two or three hours to look at the paintings, and then we could go somewhere for lunch. Hope to see you,
