

For Teachers: Please have the students read the sentences one at a time and correct their pronunciation of each sentence then have them repeat after you. Wait until after they read the sentence (use the number in place of the missing word) to have the students choose the correct answer to fill in the blank. When the students finish the article, move on to the further questions.

1. Dear Rena,
2. How are you?
3. My parents ^{近 (ちか) ごろ} recently bought a bigger house, so my brother and I ^{もはや~でない} no longer have to ^{共有 (きょうゆう) する} share a room. Do you think it's a good idea for kids to have their ^{自分自身 (じぶんじしん) の} own rooms?
4. I'm 16 years old and my parents have a rule that I always have to come home before 10 p.m. In your ^{意見 (いけん)} opinion, are my parents being too ^{厳 (きび) しい} strict ?
5. ^{ところで} By the way, when I visited Japan last year I noticed that ^{喫煙 (きつえん)} smoking is allowed in many ^{公共 (こうきょう) の} public places like cafes and restaurants. Do you think smoking should be ^{禁止 (きんし) された} banned in such places?
6. Write back soon.
Jeremy.

Further Questions&A *Ask student to answer the question on their own at first. If the student can't answer correctly, have him look at the last page and read the "example answer" for the question. Have the student try to memorize the answer, if it's too long or difficult, you should divide the sentence into 2 or 3 parts to make it easier to remember. Once they have memorized the answer, the teacher should ask the question one last time so that the student can practice answering. Also if you find any mistakes, please mark the page and let me know ASAP.
