

For Teachers: Please have the students read the sentences one at a time and correct their pronunciation of each sentence then have them repeat after you. Wait until after they read the sentence (use the number in place of the missing word) to have the students choose the correct answer to fill in the blank. When the students finish the article, move on to the further questions.

Subject: Christmas shopping

Hi Kathy,

On the last day of school, you said you wanted to go Christmas shopping this weekend. Do you want to go on Saturday or Sunday?

We can go to the city or to the mall near my school. I hope that we can go to many different shops.

Also, is it okay if my little sister comes with us? I want to buy gifts for my mother, father and for my grandparents.

I've already bought something for my sister. I have enough money because I worked at a Chinese restaurant last summer.

Hope to hear from you soon.

Emma

Further Questions *Ask student to answer the question on their own at first. If the student can't answer correctly, have him look at the last page and read the "example answer" for the question. Have the student try to memorize the answer, if it's too long or difficult, you should divide the sentence into 2 or 3 parts to make it easier to remember. Once they have memorized the answer, the teacher should ask the question one last time so that the student can practice answering. Also if you find any mistakes, please mark the page and let me know ASAP.

Dear Emma, TOC 生徒様以外使用禁止

I have my part-time job at the bookstore on Saturday, so Sunday is better for me.
I want to get presents for my parents and my brother.

Why don't we go to the city? The mall is closer, but there aren't as many stores as in the city.

We can take the train together. Let's meet in front of the station at 11:30.
It's fine if your little sister comes, too.

When we get to the city, let's have lunch at the Hamburger Garden before we go shopping. I remember your sister likes that restaurant.

See you!
Kathy
