

CORE ED

Stage 7 Lesson 398

lose (lost) find (found) win (won)

prize

What are two opposite words of “lose”?

The two opposite words of “lose” are win and find.

Do you ever lose money?

Yes, I sometimes lose money.

No, I never lose money.

Do you ever find money?

Yes, I sometimes find money.

No, I never find money.

CORE ED

Stage 7

What's the past of "lose"?

The past of "lose" is "lost".

Did you lose any money last year?

Yes, I lost some money last year.

No, I didn't lose any money last year.

What's the past of "win"?

The past of "win" is "won".

Did you win a prize when you were a child?

Yes, I won a prize when I was a child.

No, I didn't win any prize when I was a child

CORE ED

Stage 7 Lesson 399

Dream (dreamt)

castle

Do you dream a lot at night?

Yes, I dream a lot at night.

No, I don't dream a lot at night.

CORE ED

Stage 7

Do you usually remember your dreams?

Yes, I usually remember my dreams.

No, I don't usually remember my dreams.

What's the past of "dream"?

The past of "dream" is "dreamt".

What did you dream about last night?

I dreamt about summer at the beach last night.

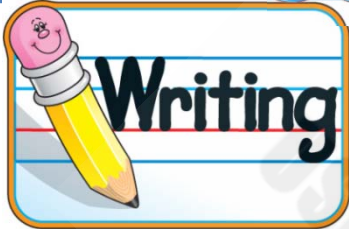

Did you dream of becoming rich and living in a castle?

Yes, I dreamt about being rich and leaving in a castle.

No,...

CORE ED

Stage 7

Listening and spelling check

Will it be * windy tomorrow?*

It was quite sunny,but there were some clouds.*

It isn't snowing,* It's raining.*

They want to take* an umbrella.*

It's not easy to drive* when the road is* very foggy.*

I think* the air is much better* in the country.*

Did it snow* very much last month?*

It was windy,*but we walked a lot.

The opposite of quick* is slow.

Do you think* we must wait for her* in the street?