

CORE ED

Stage 7 Lesson 413

Must not don't have to

In positive sentences must and have to usually mean the same.

Ex. You must study a lot. - You have to study a lot.

In negative sentences must not and don't have to have different meaning.

Ex. You must not be late to school.

You don't have to eat the soup if you don't want to.

Must we study a lot if we want to learn a language well?

Yes, we must study a lot if we want to learn a language well.

CORE ED

Stage 7

Do we have to study a lot if we want to learn a language well?

Yes, have to study a lot if we want to learn a language well.

Do you agree that students must not talk to other students during the lesson?

Yes, I agree that students must not talk to other students during the lesson.

Do students have to bring a lot of books to school?

No, students don't have to bring a lot of books to school.

CORE ED

Stage 7 Lesson 414

get

Where did you get your shoes?

I got my shoes at the shop.

What does the verb “get” mean in that sentence?

The verb “get” means “buy” in that sentence.

Can you get me a book from the next classroom, Please?

Yes, I can get you a book from the next classroom.

What does the verb “get” mean in that sentence?

The verb “get” means “bring” in that sentence.

CORE ED

Stage 7

What time did you get here today?

I got here at six today.

What does the verb “get” mean in that sentence?

The verb “get” means “arrive” in that sentence.

CORE ED

Stage 7 Lesson 415

Hungry get hungry thirsty favorite

What do you do when you're hungry?

When I'm hungry I eat.

What do you do when you're thirsty?

When I'm thirsty I drink.

What's your favorite food when you get very hungry?

When I get very hungry, my favorite food is chicken with rice.

CORE ED

Stage 7

What's your favorite drink when you get very thirsty?

When I get very thirsty, my favorite drink is cold water.

What's your favorite radio station?

My favorite radio station is K91.9 Fm.

What's your favorite TV channel?

My favorite TV channel is HBO one.