

Irregular verbs in the past

The present

the past

the present

the

past

Give

gave

tell

told

Learn

learnt

speak

spoke

Teach

taught

What's the past of "give"?

The past of "give" is "gave".

Give her your book, please.

Did you give her your book?

Yes, I gave her my book.

CORE ED

Stage 7

What's the past of "learn"?

The past of "learn" is "learnt".

Did you learn any new English words last week?

Yes, I learnt some new English words last week.

What's the past of "teach"?

The past of "teach" is "taught".

Did I teach you any new words last week?

Yes, you taught me some new words last week.

What's the past of "tell"?

The past of "tell" is "told".

CORE ED

Stage 7

Did he/she tell me the past form of “tell”?

Yes, he/she told you the past form of “tell”.

What’s the past of “speak”?

The past of “speak” is “spoke”.

Who did you speak to five minutes ago?

I spoke to you five minutes ago.

CORE ED

Stage 7 Lesson 417

Irregular verbs in the past

The present

Drink

Eat

Know

the past

drank

ate

knew

the present

see

think

the past

saw

thought

What's the past of "drink"?

The past of "drink" is "drank".

What did you drink yesterday?

I drank juice yesterday.

What's the past of "eat"?

The past of "eat" is "ate".

CORE ED

Stage 7

What did you eat for breakfast today?

I ate cheese sandwich for breakfast today.

What's the past of "know"?

The past of "know" is "knew".

Did you know that Scotland is part of the UK?

Yes, I knew that Scotland is part of the UK.

What's the past of "see"?

The past of "see" is "saw".

Did you see me in the school last week?

Yes, I saw you in the school last week.

CORE ED

Stage 7

What's the past of "think"?

The past of "think" is "thought".

What did you think about this morning?

I thought about my English lesson this morning.

Did you think about going on vacation this summer?

Yes, I thought about going on vacation this summer.

No, I didn't think about going on vacation this summer.