

CORE ED

Stage 7 Lesson 431

run(ran, ran)

swim(swam, swum)

enjoy

weekend

Do you enjoy swimming?

Yes, I enjoy swimming.

No, I don't enjoy swimming.

Do you enjoy running?

Yes, I enjoy running.

No, I don't enjoy running.

What do you enjoy doing at the weekend?

I enjoy _____ at the weekend.

CORE ED

Stage 7

What are the verb forms of “run”?

The verb forms of “run” are “run, ran, run”.

What’s the farthest you have run?

The farthest I’ve run is 25 kilometers.

What are the verb forms of “swim”?

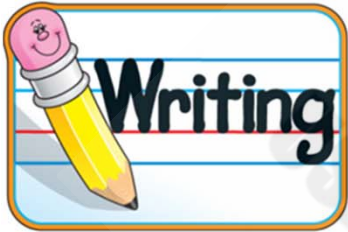

The verb forms of “swim” are “swim, swam, swum”.

Did you swim last summer?

Yes, I swam last summer.

No, I didn’t swim last summer.

CORE ED Stage 7

Listening and spelling check

He doesn't know* when World War II finished.* The bedroom is upstairs,* but the bathroom is downstairs.* We lost a lot of money* and found nothing.* This street is narrow* but it was broad in the past.* Rich people sometimes* lived in castles.* He said nothing,* but stood for a moment* and wrote something quickly* on the blackboard.* She sat down* and read her newspaper.* After that,* she took her bag* and went home.* this is the most popular* news channel in this region.* Sending that fax: was a stupid mistake.*

CORE ED

Stage 7 Lesson 432

More irregular verb forms.

The present

come

do

go

take

write

the past came did went

took wrote

the past participle

come

done

gone

taken written

What are the verb forms of “come”?

The verb forms of “come” are “come, came, come”.

How many people have come to the lesson today?

Four people have come to the lesson today.

CORE ED

Stage 7

What are the verb forms of “do”?

The verb forms of “do” are “do, did, done”.

Have you done anything interesting today?

Yes, I’ve done something interesting today.

No, I haven’t done anything interesting today.

What are the verb forms of “go”?

The verb forms of “go” are “go, went, gone”.

(Go out of the classroom)

Have I just gone out of the room?

Yes, you’ve just gone out of the room.

CORE ED

Stage 7

(come into the classroom)

Have I just gone out of the room?

No, you haven't just gone out of the room, you have just come into the room.

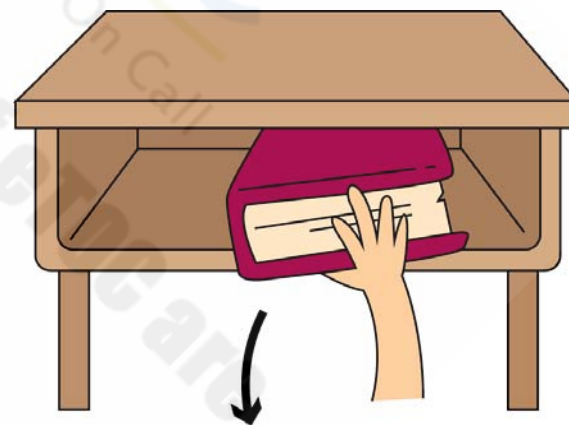

What are the verb forms of "take"?

The verb forms of "go" are "take, took, taken".

(take your book from the table/desk)

Have I just taken my book from the table/desk?

Yes, you've just taken your book from the table/desk.

CORE ED Stage 7

(put your book on the table/in the desk)

Have I just taken my book from the table/desk?

No, you haven't just taken your book from the table/desk, you've just put it on the table/in the desk.

What are the verb forms of “write”?

The verb forms of “write” are “write, wrote, written”.

Have you written anything this lesson?

Yes, I have written something this lesson.

No, I haven't written anything this lesson.