

Graduation!

Dialogue

- Aunt Mindy: Congratulations, David! I heard that you'll graduate from elementary school this week.
- David: Thank you. I'm happy to finish my elementary school education. Now I'll begin my junior high education.
- Aunt Mindy: You're not a little child anymore. You are a young adult. Your teachers expect you to be responsible and mature.
- David: I know. It's time for me to stop being childish. I should be serious about studying.
- Aunt Mindy: If you study hard and get good grades in junior high school, your parents will be very proud of you.
