

Beginner

Collective Noun

A collective noun is a name of a group or collection of persons or things taken together as one.

A group or collection of people

Family	having the same parents
Band	a group of musicians
Class	a group of students
Gang	number of prisoners or a number of persons associating together.
Team	a group of players or a number of person associated for doing anything conjointly Ex. Basketball team, debating team
Army	a group of soldiers
Crowd	a group of people
Mob	disorderly crowd
Assembly	a group of people or gathering of people for a purpose
Audience	a group of people at a show, program, or concert
Crew	a group of people working on a ship, plane
Gaggle	a group of talkative girls or women
Company	a number of persons associated together for trade, military unit.

A group of collection of animals

Herd	a group of cattle (oxen, bulls, cows raised for use)
Litter	a group of newly born puppies
Pack	a group of wolves, dogs
Pride	a group of lions
School	a group of fish or whales
Team	a group of horse; oxen
Troop	a group of monkeys
Flock	a group of sheep or goats

A collection of fish

Shoal	a group of herring
School	a group of whales or fish

Beginner

Collective Noun

Group of birds

Brood	a group of chickens
Gaggle	a group of geese
Flight	a group of birds, swallows (moving through the air)

A collection of insects

Hive	a group of bees living together
Swarm	a group of bees, insects, ants

A collection of fruits

Bunch	a collection of grapes, bananas
Cluster	a collection of grapes, bananas
Comb	a collection of bananas
Crate	a collection of fruits

A collection of things

Fleet	a collection of motorcars, ships
Flight	a collection of planes, steps
Peal	a collection of bells
Pack	a collection of cards, lies
Suit	a set of clothes
Bunch	a collection of keys, flowers
Cluster	a number of flowers growing together

Mass nouns

A mass noun is a name of a thing that is not usually counted. It comes in mass. It used markers or counters to denote its number.

Example:

Salt, sugar, air, oil, gas, mud, flour, water, rice, sand, coffee