

Beginner Conjunction

A conjunction is a word that joins other words, phrases, clauses or sentences. Some conjunctions are: and, as, because, but, or, neither/nor, for, since, so, until, yet, and while.

Exercises

Circle the articles and underline the conjunctions in the sentences.

1. The boy and the girl rode a bus to school.
2. An apple a day keeps the doctor away.
3. The students likes a lot of mazes or games.
4. A school has classrooms, an office and a library.
5. The gardener trimmed the grass and the trees.
6. After eating and dressing, the boy took a cab.
7. At the zoo, Ann liked the apes but not the lions.
8. A picture is worth a thousand words.
9. The early birds gets the worm or the spider.
10. When the store opened, I got milk and a cake.
11. The computer crashed and I became upset.
12. The man ate fries and soda but not a burger.
13. The book has a blue and green cover.
14. An athlete stretches or runs every day.
15. The artist drew a picture but then she lost it.
16. The boy ate a pie while the man waited for him.
17. I went to the hospital because I was sick.
18. The teacher gave a quiz and assigned reading.
19. The boy watched TV but missed the best show.
20. The cat was hungry, so I poured a bowl of milk.