How do I get there?

Customer: Hi Miss. Is there a duty-free shop near here?

Miss: Hello.

There's a duty-free shop beside Robinson's mall.

Customer: How do I get there?

Miss: You can get there by taxi.

Customer: Where can I get a cab?

Miss: There are lots of cabs that pass by the taxi bay.

Do you accept credit card?

Man: I'd like to pay all these goods by card.

Do you accept credit card?

Seller: Sorry, we don't accept card in this tax-free store.

Man: I see. Here's my cash.

Seller: Do you have a smaller bill? I think I'm short of change.

Man: No, I don't.

Seller: Wait a minute, sir.

I'll ask the other stores if they have change for large bills.

Could you show me your new arrivals?

Sales person: Good Afternoon ma'am.

Are you looking for anything in particular?

Lady: No, not really.

Could you show me your new arrivals?

Sales person: Would you like to try on our new arrivals?

Lady: Thank you but I'm just looking around.

Sales person: Take your time, ma'am.

Lady: Okay.

Could you take me to the nearest shopping area?

Lady: Could you take me to the nearest shopping area in this town?

Taxi driver: There are two shopping malls in the area.

Lady: I'd like to go to the bigger shopping area, please.

Taxi driver: Okay ma'am.

Lady: Could you make it faster? I'm in a hurry.

Taxi driver: Right away ma'am.

(2) Activity 1

Role play with your teacher.

You are a customer in a small convenience store.

You want to buy a bottle of mineral water, a pack of batteries for your digital camera, and some bags of chips.

You don't have enough cash on you for your purchases.

Ask if you can use your credit card.
