

Unit7. タクシーに乗る

Taxi ride (2)

(1) Conversation

I'd like to warn you...?

- Driver: I'd like to warn you that I can't turn the meter on.
- Dom: No, you should turn it on.
- Driver: Sorry, it's broken, sir.
- Dom: Are you sure?
- Driver: Yes.
- Dom: So how would I know my fare?
- Driver: We will just peg it on the regular fare, which is 50 bucks.
- Dom: Ah, okay.

Can I wait for my friend first?

- Driver: Come on!
- Passenger: Can I wait for my friend first?
- Driver: Sure. Get in. Get in. Where to?
- Passenger: To Main Street, please.
- Driver: Where exactly?
- Passenger: Number 12 unit-B.

(2) Activity 1

Picture Story

Look at a different transportation mode

Take turns asking and answering this:

Have ever ridden a _____?

Yes, I have /No, I haven't.

Build up the conversation:

(3) Activity 2

Travel Expressions

Port of call/stopover/layover For example: "Where's our next port of call?"	A place where you stop for a short time, especially on a journey.
---	--

Hit and run. For example: "The police are hunting a hit and run driver."	This idiom describes a road accident in which the driver who caused the accident drives away without helping the other people involved and without telling the police.
--	---