

Learn It

An English family says "Hello!"

| Mr. and Mrs. Nato are married. | | | | | |
|---|---|---|-----------------------------|--|--|
| This is Mary Nato. |  | Mrs. Nato: "Hello! I'm Mary Nato, George's wife. George is my husband." | This is George Nato. |  | Mr. Nato: "Hello! I'm George Nato, Mary's husband. Mary is my wife." |
|   | Mr. and Mrs. Nato: "Here are our children. We are their parents." | | | | |
| This is Carla. |  | Carla: | "Hello! I'm Carla Nato." | | |

| | | | |
|---------------------|---|---------------|--|
| This is Rob. |  | Carla: | "This is Rob. He's my big brother. I'm his sister." |
| | | Rob: | "Hello! I'm Rob Nato. Carla is my little sister. I'm her brother." |

| | |
|---|--|
|  | Carla and Rob: "Here are our parents. We're their children." |
|---|--|

| | | | |
|-----------------------------------|---|-----------------------|---|
| You have already met Mary. |  | Carla and Rob: | "This is our mother." |
| | | Mrs. Nato: | "I'm Rob and Carla's mother. Carla is my daughter and Rob is my son." |

| | | | |
|-------------------------------------|---|-----------------------|---|
| You have already met George. |  | Carla and Rob: | "This is our father." |
| | | Mr. Nato: | "I'm Rob and Carla's father. Carla is my daughter and Rob is my son." |

! Note: We sometimes call our sisters and brothers little or big. A little sister is younger, while a big sister is older.

Learn It

An English family says "Hello!"

| Mr. and Mrs. Nato are married. | | | | | |
|---|--|---|-----------------------------|---|--|
| This is Mary Nato. |  | Mrs. Nato: "Hello! I'm Mary Nato, George's wife. George is my husband." | This is George Nato. |  | Mr. Nato: "Hello! I'm George Nato, Mary's husband. Mary is my wife." |
|  | | Mr. and Mrs. Nato: "Here are our children. We are their parents." | | | |

| | | | |
|--|---|------------------------------|--|
| This is Carla. |  | Carla: | "Hello! I'm Carla Nato." |
| This is Rob. |  | Carla: | "This is Rob. He's my big brother. I'm his sister." |
| | | Rob: | "Hello! I'm Rob Nato. Carla is my little sister. I'm her brother." |
|  | Carla and Rob: "Here are our parents. We're their children." | | |
| You have already met Mary. |  | Carla and Rob: | "This is our mother." |
| | | Mrs. Nato: | "I'm Rob and Carla's mother. Carla is my daughter and Rob is my son." |

| | | | |
|------------------------------|---|-----------------------|---|
| You have already met George. |  | Carla and Rob: | "This is our father." |
| | | Mr. Nato: | "I'm Rob and Carla's father. Carla is my daughter and Rob is my son." |

! Note: We sometimes call our sisters and brothers little or big. A little sister is younger, while a big sister is older.