

Eiken Dual-RSP G2

Reading & Speaking Practice Lesson #27

Story

Recently in Japan, the number of foreign tourists has been increasing rapidly.

As a result, there is a shortage of hotel rooms in many places.

Now, some people who have rooms that are not being used are helping to solve this problem.

Some homeowners offer reasonable prices for these rooms, and by doing so they help travelers and make money.

Vocabulary

1. rapidly

2. homeowners

3. reasonable

Questions & Sample Answers

【For coaches: Please teach by “DUAL METHOD”】

23 1) What has been increasing in Japan recently?

24 The number of foreign tourists has been
25 increasing rapidly.

26
27 2) What is there a shortage of?

28 There is a shortage of hotel rooms in many places.

29
30 3) Who is helping to solve the problem of a shortage
31 of hotel rooms?

32 People who have rooms that are not being used
33 are helping to solve the problem.

34
35 4) How are some homeowners helping travelers and
36 make money?

37 By offering reasonable prices for rooms that are
38 not being used.

39
40 5) Have you ever stayed in a private home rather
41 than a hotel?

42 Yes, I have. I stayed at an air bnb.

43 No, I haven't. I don't think it seems safe.

44
45 6) How is renting out a room in one's home good for 46 the homeowners?

47 They can make extra money without leaving their 48 homes.

49

7) Do you think Japan should build more hotels?

No, I don't think so. I think there are already a lot of hotels in Japan.

8) Why is it important that many foreign tourists visit Japan?

A lot of the money that comes into Japan is from tourism, so it is important to keep tourists happy.

USE & PRINTING outside of eTOC are strictly PROHIBITED.

Not for use outside Flex English Community

※以下グーグル翻訳を使用しています。参考までにご利用ください。