Do 1-3 to all questions and the answers in English page.

1. First, read one sentence and have the student repeat after you.
2. Second, then have the student check the Japanese page to know the meaning.
3. Let student go back to English page then, close their eyes and repeat after you then have them say by them self without looking at.

4. After you have done this for all 6 sentences in English page. Have the student scroll down to the Japanese page.

5. While looking at the Japanese page, have the student say the each sentence in English and to have correction what they said. Then repeat after you for the last time one by one because they should know the appropriate pronunciation.
