

Blood Idioms Lesson 8 - Beginners

too rich for (someone's) blood

- be too expensive for someone

The holiday in the very expensive resort was too rich for our blood so we didn't go.

new blood

- new members brought into a group, new workers in a company

We have got lots of new blood in our club recently.

sweat blood

- be very anxious and tense

I began to sweat blood when I heard that some of our staff would be transferred to another city.
