

Daily Conversation 9
You look in the pink.

Students should answer in complete sentences. Make sure that they understand the questions given.

1. Describe the photo and its underlying message.

The photo...

2. Have you ever been sick? Tell me about it.

I have been... or I have never been...

3. Are there any ailments history in your family? What are these?

In my family...

4. What do you do in order not to have these ailments?

I usually...

5. Do you agree that "health is our wealth"? Why or why not?

I do... or I don't agree...

6. Describe a healthy person?

A healthy...

7. Compare and Contrast healthy and unhealthy person.

Role Play

Read the following conversation with correct pronunciation and diction.

Les	You look in the pink these days. Have you come back from a holiday?
Doug	No, I've been bogged down in the mire of office work.
Les	So have I. But by contrast, I'm deadbeat after work each day. All I want then is a good rest. Otherwise, I would feel unfit all over.
Doug	Yes, you really look off color today.
Les	Tell me then, how do you manage to keep so healthy?
Doug	You need spend a while exercising every day. I don't like being a couch potato, even though I may be worn out after work.

Make sure that you answer in complete sentences.

1. What do the words mire, deadbeat, couch potato and bogged down mean?
2. How do you feel if you work too much?
3. How do you battle stress?
4. Can you think of advantages that people get from stress?
5. What can you say about people who are workaholic?
6. How do you balance your work or studies and other activities?
7. How do people work in your country? Do they still have time for recreation?
8. What does the line, "look in the pink", means? Use it in a sentence.

HOMEWORK

endemic

n. the theory that places man's chief good in the completeness of self

adj. peculiar to some specified country or people

n. proverb

n. the state of being dormant

impetuosity

adj. strictly observant of the rules or forms prescribed by law or custom

n. the getting rid of waste matter

n. rashness

v. to arouse, as emotion, interest, or the like gravity

n. one who or that which is only of temporary existence

n. seriousness

n. one of three men united coordinately in public office or authority

adj. noting a genus or kind; opposed to specific course

n. line of motion or direction

n. the quality of being grand or admirably great

n. a young cow

adj. returning from time to time, especially at regular or stated intervals

wizen

v. to become or cause to become withered or dry

adj. limited

n. the state of being joined together, or the things so joined

n. one who uses or engages the services of other persons for pay

vacate

n. one skilled in metaphysics

v. to leave

adj. capable of being pressed into smaller compass

adj. pertaining to the mind or soul

perspicacious

n. estrangement

n. sorcery

adj. astute

n. a restriction

obstetrician

n. a human skull as a symbol of death

adj. lacking foresight or thrift

v. to renounce (a right or privilege)

n. a practitioner of midwifery

wampum

adj. beginning

n. passage from one place, condition, or action to another

adv. gradually

n. beads strung on threads, formerly used among the American Indians as currency

composure

n. patient endurance or toleration of offenses

adj. not to be approved, considered, or allowed, as testimony

n. calmness

adj. taking unlawful or exorbitant interest on money loaned

Use the following words in sentences.

1. endemic- _____

2. vacate- _____