

Arm/ Hand/ Finger Idioms Lesson 9 - Beginners

join hands

- to hold hands so that one person is holding the hands of another person
All of the children joined hands as they crossed the road.

keep one's finger's crossed

- to wish for good luck

"I will keep my fingers crossed that you are able to get the new job that you have applied for."

leave (someone or something) in (someone's) hands

- to give someone control of someone or something

I plan to leave the party organizing in my friend's hands.