

GP2 Reading & Speaking Practice #28

Story

One chilly afternoon, Amika's mother suggested they make rice bread together. Amika loved spending time with her mother in the kitchen, so she eagerly agreed. They gathered the ingredients - rice flour, water, and a pinch of salt. Amika's mother showed her how to mix the rice flour and water to make a soft, doughy mixture. They kneaded the dough until it was smooth and then shaped it into small, round buns. As they waited for the rice bread to bake, the kitchen filled with a delicious aroma. When the bread was done, they enjoyed it with some warm soup. Amika thought it was the most comforting and tasty bread she had ever eaten. Making rice bread became one of Amika's favorite activities, and she couldn't wait to bake it again with her mother.
