

LESSON 18

half

Half of four is two. Half of twelve is six.

How much is half of a hundred?

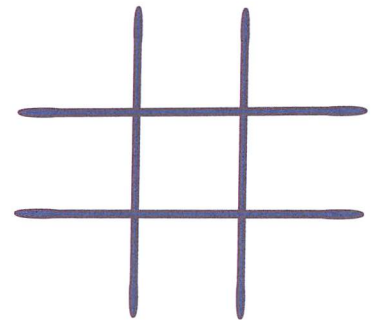

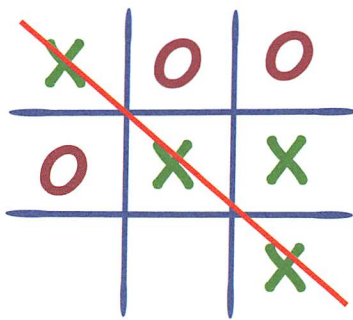

Half of a hundred is fifty

How much is half of thirteen?

Half of thirteen is six and a half

Are half of the people in this school boys?

Yes, half of the people in this school are boys

win

lose

Are you happy or sad when you win a game?

I'm happy when I win a game

Does this country generally lose at football?

Yes, this country generally loses at football ~ No, this country doesn't generally lose at football; it generally wins

eat

cheese

bread

meat

What am I doing?

You're eating

What do we eat with?

We eat with our mouths

Do you eat bread?

Yes, I eat bread

Do mice eat cheese?

Yes, mice eat cheese

Do all the people in your family eat meat?

Yes, all the people in my family eat meat ~

No, not all the people in my family eat meat

drink

milk

water

coffee

tea

What am I doing?

You're drinking

Can we drink meat?

No, we can't drink meat; we eat meat

What colour's milk?

Milk's white

What colour's water?

Water hasn't got any colour

Is there a drink on this table?

Yes there's a drink on that table ~ No, there isn't a drink on that table

Are tea and coffee drinks for children?

No tea and coffee aren't drinks for children; they're drinks for adults

What drinks do you like?

I like ...

talk

about

What's the meaning of the verb "to talk"?

The meaning of the verb "to talk" is "to speak"

Am I talking to you?

Yes, you're talking to me

Tell me what I'm talking about:

- It's very small and it likes cheese

You're talking about a mouse

- I've got two on my feet
You're talking about your shoes (or boots)

- It's the day after Sunday
You're talking about Monday

- There are seven days in it
You're talking about a week

- It's a long animal without any legs

You're talking about a snake

- It's between my head and my shoulders

You're talking about your neck

good

bad

Is this a bad pen?

No, it isn't a bad pen; it's a good pen

Is this a good picture?

Yes, it's a good picture ~ No, it isn't a good picture; it's a bad picture

Are all children good children?

No, not all children are good children; some children are good and some children are bad

the same ... as

different ... from

Japan

Chart 10

Are your shoes the same as my shoes?

No, my shoes aren't the same as your shoes; they're different from your shoes

Is the clock in Charlie's room the same as the clock in Kate's room?

No, the clock in Charlie's room isn't the same as the clock in Kate's room; it's different from the clock in Kate's room

Are penguins the same colour as giraffes?

No, penguins aren't the same colour as giraffes; they're a different colour from giraffes

Do you speak the same language as the people in Japan?

No, I don't speak the same language as the people in Japan; I speak a different language from the people in Japan

M	T	W	T	F	S	S
		1	2	3	4	5
6	7	8	9	10	11	12
13	14	15	16	17	18	19
20	21	22	23	24	25	26
27	28	29	30	31

weekend

at the weekend

on Saturday,
on Sunday etc.

What do we call the days Saturday and Sunday?

We call the days Saturday and Sunday the weekend

Do children generally go to school on Saturday and Sunday?

No, children don't generally go to school on Saturday and Sunday

Do you play with your friends at the weekend?

Yes, I play with my friends at the weekend

Dictation 7

The girls/ are sitting down/ on the grass./ This answer/ is wrong./ That is right./ Hold my hat,/ please./ Thank you./
The boys are staying/ in their house/ but I'm going./ Goodbye!