

LESSON 20

chat

study

Are you chatting with your friends now?

No, I'm not chatting with my friends now; I'm studying

Do you chat with your friends after the lesson?

Yes, I chat with my friends after the lesson

Which language are we studying now?

We're studying English now

Do you study English at home?

Yes, I study English at home ~ No, I don't study English at home think

What am I doing?

You're thinking

Do you think I can touch the ceiling?

Yes, I think you can touch the ceiling ~

No, I don't think you can touch the ceiling

Do you think there's anybody in that room?

Yes, I think there's somebody in that room ~

No, I don't think there's anybody in that room

What do you think I've got in my pocket?

I think you've got ... in your pocket

Do you think I can speak Chinese?

No, I don't think you can speak Chinese

About how many people do you think there are in this building?

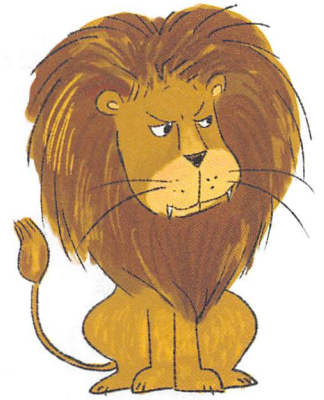

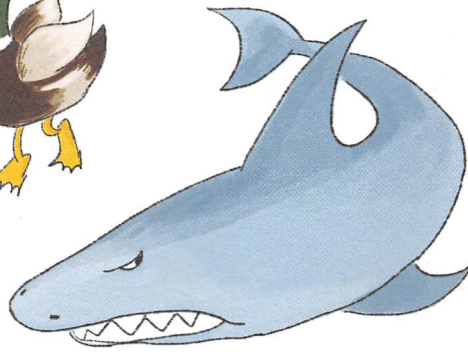

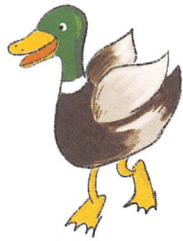

I think there are about ... people in this building

kind

duck

shark

lion

What's this?

It's a book

What kind of book is this?

It's an English book

What kind of room is this?

It's a classroom

What kind of animal is a duck?

A duck is a bird

What kind of animal is a shark?

A shark is a fish

Are sharks friendly fish?

No, sharks aren't friendly fish; they're unfriendly fish

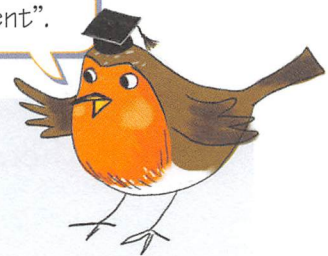

Is a lion a kind of big dog?

No, a lion isn't a kind of big dog; it's a kind of big cat

like

The word "like" means "not the same, but not very different".

Is your left shoe like your right shoe?

Yes, my left shoe's like my right shoe

Is your face the same as your dad's (or mum's)?

No, my face isn't the same as my dad's; it's like my dad's

shop

buy

supermarket

money

Where do we buy things?

We buy things in a shop

Is a supermarket a small shop?

No, a supermarket isn't a small shop; it's a large shop

What kind of things can we buy in a supermarket?

We can buy food and things for our home in a supermarket

Can we buy things without money?

No, we can't buy things without money

Have you got any money in your pocket now?

Yes, I've got some money in my pocket now ~ No, I haven't got any money in my pocket now

village

town

city

is a village

is a town

is a city

Is ... a village?

No, ... isn't a village; it's a city

Is ... a city?

No, ... isn't a city; it's a town

Is ... a town?

No, ... isn't a town; it's a village

Is a city very large?

Yes, a city's very large

Is a village large?

No, a village isn't large; it's small

Do you live in a city, a town or a village?

I live in a ...

What's the name of your city (or town or village)?

... is the name of my ...

quarter

Ten is a quarter of forty.

What's a quarter of eight?

Two is a quarter of eight

How much is a quarter of forty?

Ten is a quarter of forty

How much is a quarter of a hundred?

25 is a quarter of a hundred

teach

learn

Spanish

Are you teaching me English?

No, I'm not teaching you English; I'm learning English from you

Are you learning how to speak Spanish now?

No, I'm not learning how to speak Spanish now; I'm learning how to speak English

Do you learn English at home?

Yes, I learn English at home ~ No, I don't learn English at home

Can you teach me German (or Portuguese, Chinese etc.)?

No, I can't teach you German

Dictation 8

A giraffe's tongue/ is black!/ Six, seven, eight,/ nine, ten./ They've got a daughter/ and two sons./ Look at the map/ and tell me/ the name of this country./ There are sixty minutes/ in an hour.