

LESSON 55

there was

there were

Is there a picture on that wall?

Yes, there's a picture on that wall

Was there a picture on that wall three lessons ago?

Yes, there was a picture on that wall three lessons ago

Were there any children in this room last week?

Yes, there were some children in this room last week

Was there an elephant in this room yesterday?

No, there wasn't an elephant in this room yesterday

Were there any pictures on the floor last lesson?

No, there weren't any pictures on the floor last lesson

Past tense of regular verbs

regular

question

Did you walk to school yesterday?

positive

Yes, I walked
to school yesterday

negative

No, I did not walk
to school yesterday

With some verbs, we make the past tense by adding the letters "ed".

They are called "regular" verbs.

"I talked to you last lesson."

How do we make the past tense of regular verbs?

We make the past tense of regular verbs by adding the letters "ed"

Give me an example, please.

walked – I generally walk to school. I walked to school yesterday.

Did Kate play a computer game with Sophie yesterday?

Yes, Kate played a computer game with Sophie yesterday

Did Charlie and Dan chat with their friends yesterday?

Yes, Charlie and Dan chatted with their friends yesterday

Did your mother look after you when you were a baby?

Yes, my mother looked after me when I was a baby

Who did you talk to at breakfast this morning?

I talked to ... at breakfast this morning

When you were a very little child, did your mum help you to get dressed?

Yes, when I was a very little child, my mum helped me to get dressed

Did you enjoy your last holiday?

Yes, I enjoyed my last holiday

Did you remember to brush your teeth last night?

Yes, I remembered to brush my teeth last night

Did you move any parts of your body during the last lesson?

Yes, I moved some parts of my body during the last lesson

For a question, put “did” before the verb,
but don’t add “ed”!

“Did you sneeze yesterday?”

For a negative, use “did not” (or “didn’t”),
but remember – no “ed”!

“I didn’t sneeze yesterday.”

Did I ask you a thousand questions last lesson?

No, you didn’t ask me a thousand questions last lesson

Did last lesson end at 9 o’clock in the evening?

*No, last lesson didn’t end at 9 o’clock in the evening;
it ended at ...*

Did you call anyone on a mobile phone yesterday?

Yes, I called someone on a mobile phone yesterday ~

No, I didn’t call anyone on a mobile phone yesterday

Did you want to come to school today?

Yes, I wanted to come to school today ~ No, I didn’t want to come to school today

Did you kick a football last weekend?

Yes, I kicked a football last weekend ~ No, I didn’t kick a football last weekend

Did Kate play on the beach yesterday afternoon?

No, Kate didn’t play on the beach yesterday afternoon

Did Charlie and Dan watch animals at the zoo yesterday?

No, Charlie and Dan didn’t watch animals at the zoo yesterday

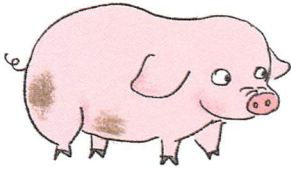

farm

farmer

Chart 1&a

sheep pig

cow

horse

What's this?

It's a farm

And who's this man?

That man's a farmer

What's the plural of "sheep"?

The plural of "sheep" is "sheep"

Name the animals you can see on this farm, please.

On that farm, I can see some sheep, some pigs, some cows, some horses, some chickens, some rabbits and a dog

measure

What am I doing?

You're measuring the table with a ruler

Apart from measuring things, what can we use a ruler for?

Apart from measuring things, we can use a ruler for drawing straight lines

along across

bridge

How can we travel along a river?

We can travel along a river on a boat

Chart 18b

How can we get across a river?

We can get across a river by using a bridge or by swimming across

Which streets do you walk along when you go home?

I walk along ... when I go home

Is it safe to ride a bicycle fast along busy streets?

No, it isn't safe to ride a bicycle fast along busy streets;
it's dangerous

What must you do before you walk across a road?

I must look both ways before I walk across a road

Dictation 32

It's important/ to buy the cheapest ticket./ For me,/ history isn't/ as difficult as maths./ I'm crying/ because I'm cutting onions./ How often/ do the youngest kids/ go to the playground?/ Rub your knee./ It'll get better.