

PART 1

25

The examiner asks the candidate about him/herself, his/her home, work or studies and other familiar topics.

EXAMPLE

Computers

- Are there a lot of computer shops where you live? [Why/Why not?]
- What do most people in your family use a computer for?
- Do you think people spend too much time using computers in your country?
- What are the most popular computer programmes that people use in your country? [Why?]

Children

- Do you enjoy spending time with children? [Why/Why not?]
- What sort of activities do children enjoy doing? [Why?]
- Do you think children enjoy stories with animals in them? [Why/Why not?]
- Do you think cities are a good place to bring up children? [Why/Why not?]

PART 2

26

Talk about someone you met who was interesting.

You should talk about:

where he/she was

who he/she was

what you did together

and explain why you think this person was interesting.

You will have to talk about the topic for one to two minutes.

You will have one minute to think about what you are going to say.

You can make some notes to help you if you wish.

Discussion topics:

Age and meeting people

Where do young adults and teenagers usually meet their friends?

How has the Internet changed relationships between people?

Do older people enjoy meeting new people as much as younger people do? [Why/Why not?]

Globalisation and relationships

Increasing numbers of people today are forming relationships on social network sites. Why is this happening?

It is often said that we live in a global village. How true is this really?

Some people fear that globalisation will result in societies becoming increasingly similar. Is this a positive or negative development?