Q22.

The FAA has recently relaxed another regulations involving the use of portable electronic devices on both international and domestic flights, although voice calls are still restricted.

Answer: another → other

Grammar Point:

The article “another” is used with singular nouns. For plural nouns, you should use “other”

Key Vocabulary:

FAA (noun-singular): Federal Aviation Administration- an office that controls airplane safety in the U.S.

Regulations (noun-plural): Laws, rules

Portable (adjective): Easy to carry

Domestic (adjective): Local; within the same country

Restricted (adjective): Not allowed

TOEFL® Tip:

Articles usually come before nouns. Whenever you see an underlined article, be sure that it matches its referent noun.

English Tip:

Singular articles: A, an, another,

Plural articles: Other, some

Singular or plural articles: The, then

Fun English:

The teacher told Johnny to write an essay of 150 words.

Johnny thought for a while then stared to write.

“I went to call my puppy in for the night and I called ‘Puppy!’, ‘Puppy!’, ‘Puppy!’,...”
