Q12.

- A. Victoria is using them
- B. Jenny let Victoria borrow them
- C. Victoria let Jenny borrow them
- D. They're lost

Answer: C. Victoria let Jenny borrow them

Script:

Man: Victoria, you don't have the lab notes I let you borrow, do you?

Woman: No, I don't, I lent them to Jenny.

Narrator: What happened to the lab notes?

Key Vocabulary:

Borrow (verb): To take and use

Lent (verb): To give

Listening Point:

In the previous conversation, Victoria explains that she doesn't have the lab notes because she gave them to Jenny to use.

TOEFL® Tip:

Double negatives may give a positive meaning in answering negative questions, like in the previous example, "No, I don't" answers "yes" to the question the man asked the woman. Negative can be words as in, not, no, none, or as a prefix in-, un-, dis-.

English Tip:

Asking for permission words include: Can I, May I, Do you mind if I, Would you mind if I, Is it ok if I, Would it be all right if I.

Giving permission words include: Yes, please do, Sure, Go ahead, Sure, No problem.

Refusing to give permission words include: No, please don't, I'm sorry, but that's not possible, I'm afraid, but you can't.

Fun English:

A: Hey, man! Please call me a taxi.

B: Yes, sir. You are a taxi!
