Flood Closes Sunnyville Mall

Yesterday's thunderstorm and heavy rains caused a flood in the Sunnyville Mall. Four feet of water filled the lower level. The flood didn't hurt any shoppers, but the stores had to close early.

Ken Green's store, T-shirt Planet, was full of water.

"I was talking on the phone when water started to pour in. It was scary, so I ran," said Mr. Green. "I haven't seen all the damage yet."

Mr. Green's insurance will pay for new T-shirts.

The most extensive damage was in the food court. "I lost 250 pounds of ice cream," said Rita Smith of Rita's Delicious Ice Cream.

Luckily, shoppers haven't been discouraged by the flood. Repairs have already begun at Lacy's Department Store. The food court will reopen next week.
