87 QUESTION 10

1 Woman: Hi, this is Harriet Dunn. Yeah, last week I ordered a set of fine bone china dishes from your store for my parents' 50th wedding anniversary, and asked you to have them delivered. They just got here, but there's a big problem. I specifically ordered the ones with the blue pattern and the ones you delivered actually have a reddish pattern. These ones just won't match any of my mother's other dishes or the dining room, and they just won't do. I don't have time to come down to pick up another set before the party in two days. I definitely ordered the blue ones and if I can't get this sorted out on time I won't have a present for my parents' anniversary. Can you call me back and tell me how you can fix this? My number is 555-4321.

2 Man: Hi, my name's Marvin Smith. Last night I left two business suits at your cleaners for the Speedy Overnight cleaning service. As I explained to the manager, I have to leave immediately after work to go to the airport to catch a flight to Brazil this evening. You said you could deliver my suits to my office in the morning because I wouldn't have time to go home, or come to your store. Well, you delivered two suits to my office, all right, but the problem is they're not my suits! They are way too small, and one of them is yellow! This is a very important trip for me, and I definitely have to get those suits right away. My flight leaves in three hours. Please call me back right away and tell me how you can solve this problem. The number is 555-8634.
