Lesson 5

Preview Test

1. B	F:	There you are. I needed that contract half an hour ago.
	M1:	Sorry — I got lost on the way over here.
	F:	You should have gotten better directions.
2. C	M2:	So you're still leaving on Tuesday, Rita?
	F:	No, I'm going to delay my trip for a day.
	M2:	That's probably a good idea.
3. D	M1:	We don't have any reservations.
		Is it possible for us to get a table?
	F:	You're in luck — a party of two just canceled their reservations. We can seat you in a few minutes.
	M1:	Great.
4B_	F:	Is there a dress code at your company?
	M2:	No, but most of the men wear coats
		and ties, and the women wear dresses or suits.
	F:	Oh, it's pretty formal then.
		On, it's protty formal them.
5A	F:	Good morning, National Office Supplies.
	M1:	Yes, this is Mr. Tupton. I'm calling about an order I just received. There were

	M1:	Actually, if I feel better, I'm going to come in sometime after lunch.

7.	A	M1:	I had to take a limousine to the airport. That must have been pretty expensive. Yes, but there just wasn't enough time to wait for the shuttle bus. I would have missed my flight.
8.		F: M1: F:	Dan is sure in a bad mood this morning. He can't find his new coffee mug. Is that all? Well, I saw it in the conference room.
9.	D		It sure is great to be home.  Welcome back, Ms. Shearson. I forget — how long were you living abroad? It was a year last month.
10.	B		Are you going to the trade fair in Brussels this year, Jim? I wish I could — I just have too many things to do here. Well, at least the distribution manager will be there.

Then I guess I'll wait a couple of weeks before I buy any clothes.

M1: How did you get to be so good on the piano?

I took lessons when I was a child.

M1: So did I, but I sure can't play like you.
