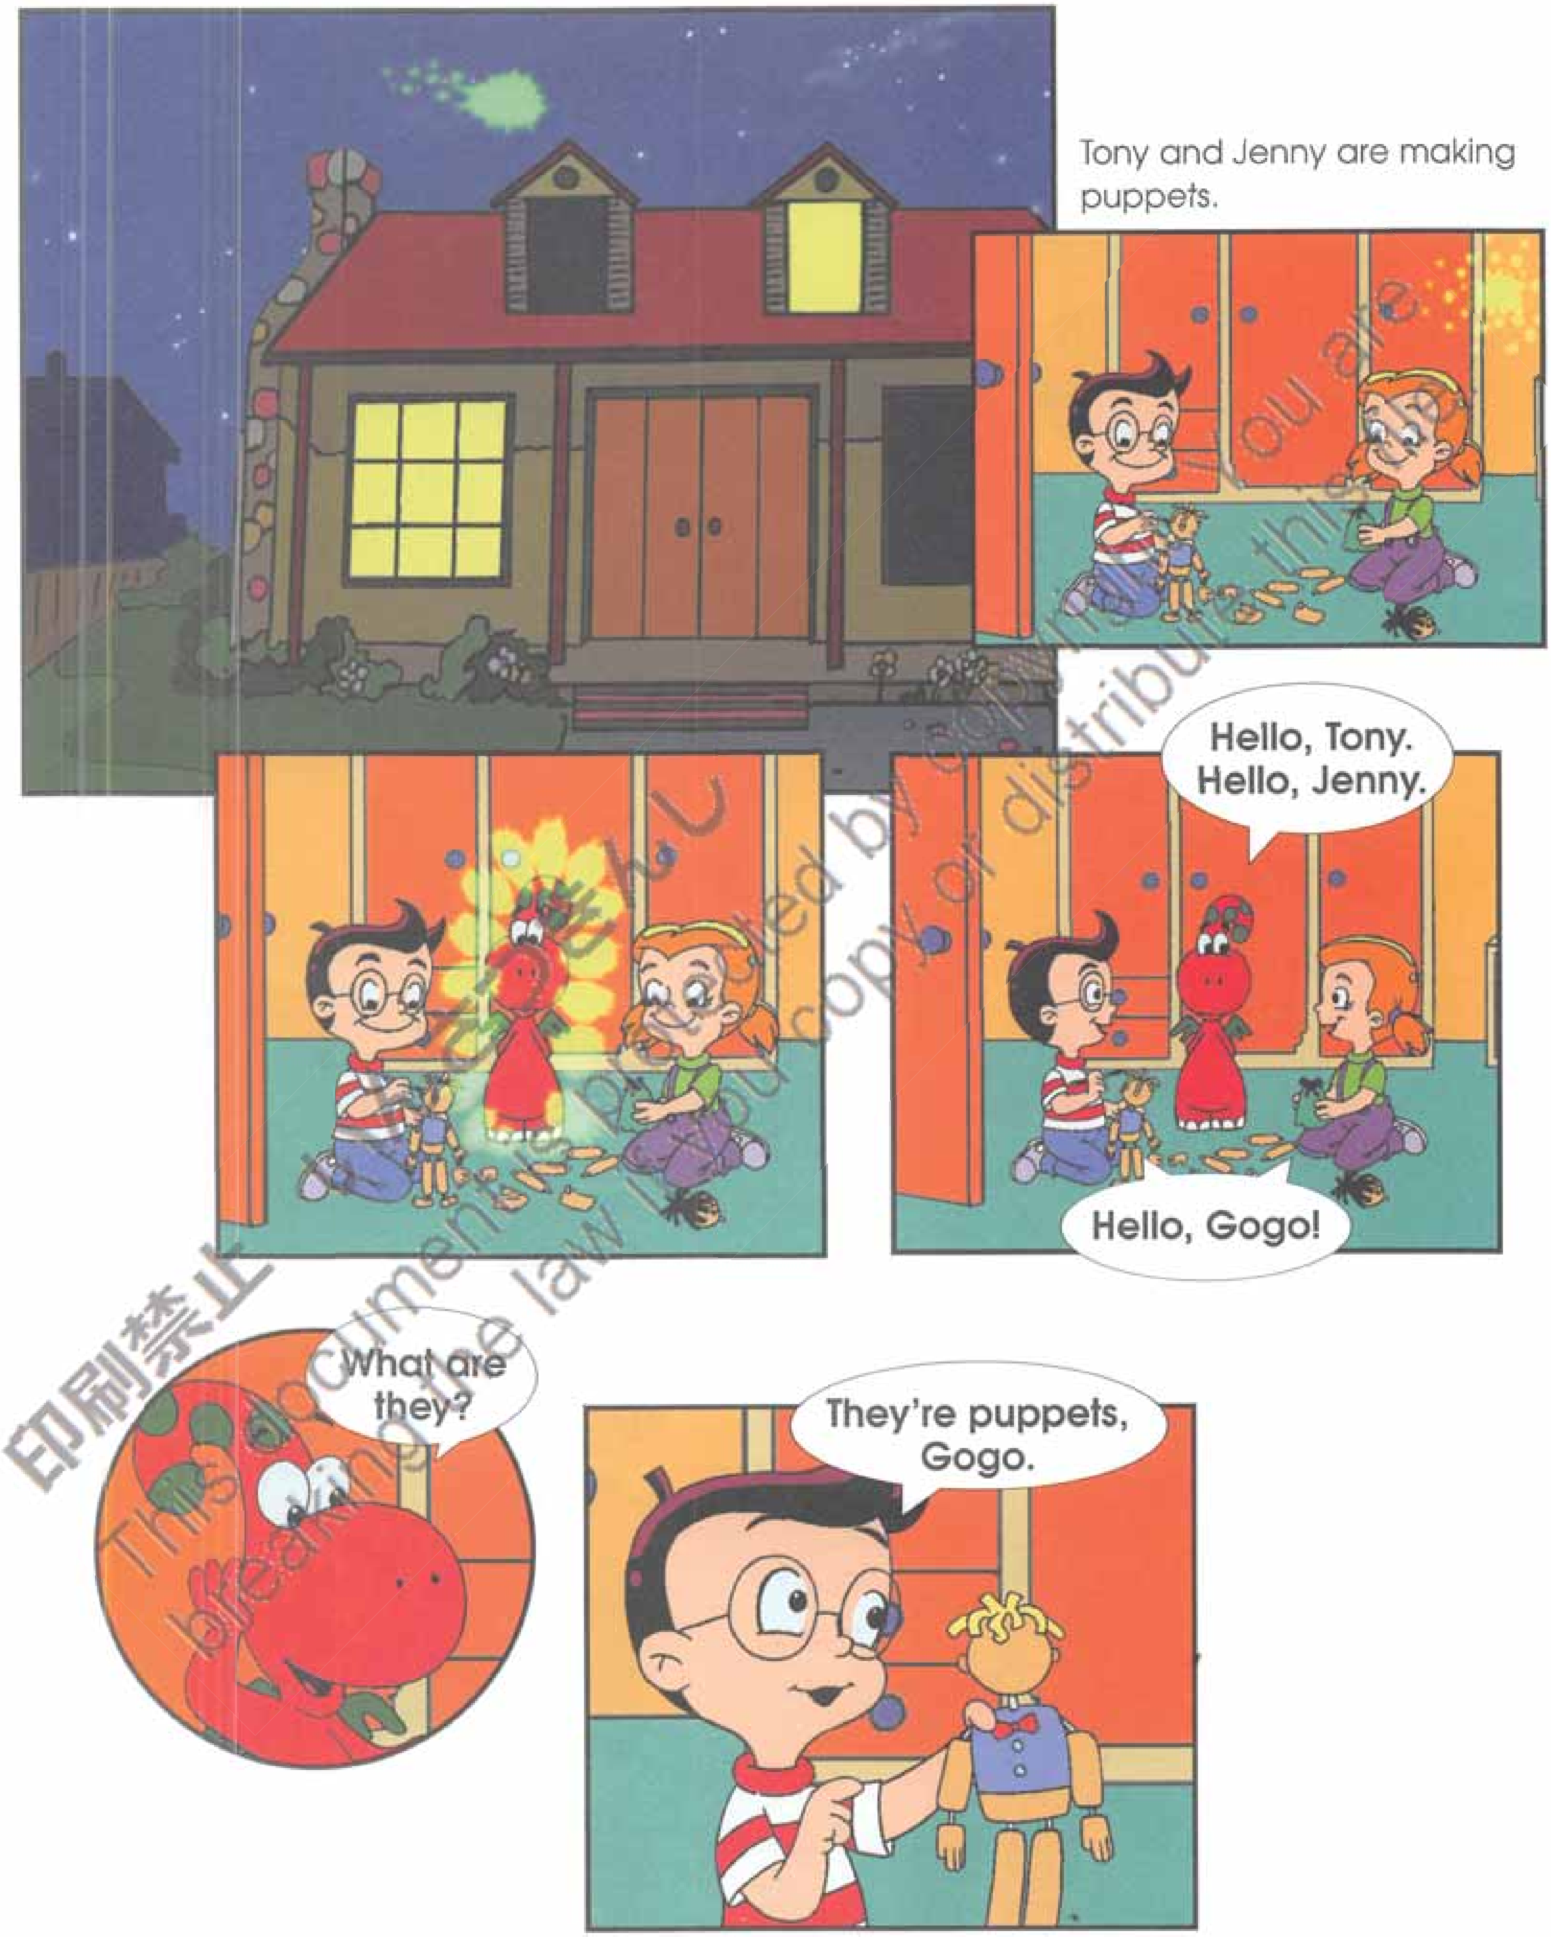
What are we doing?

23 What are we doing?



Tony and Jenny are making puppets.

Hello, Tony.
Hello, Jenny.
Hello, Gogo!
What are they?
They're puppets, Gogo.

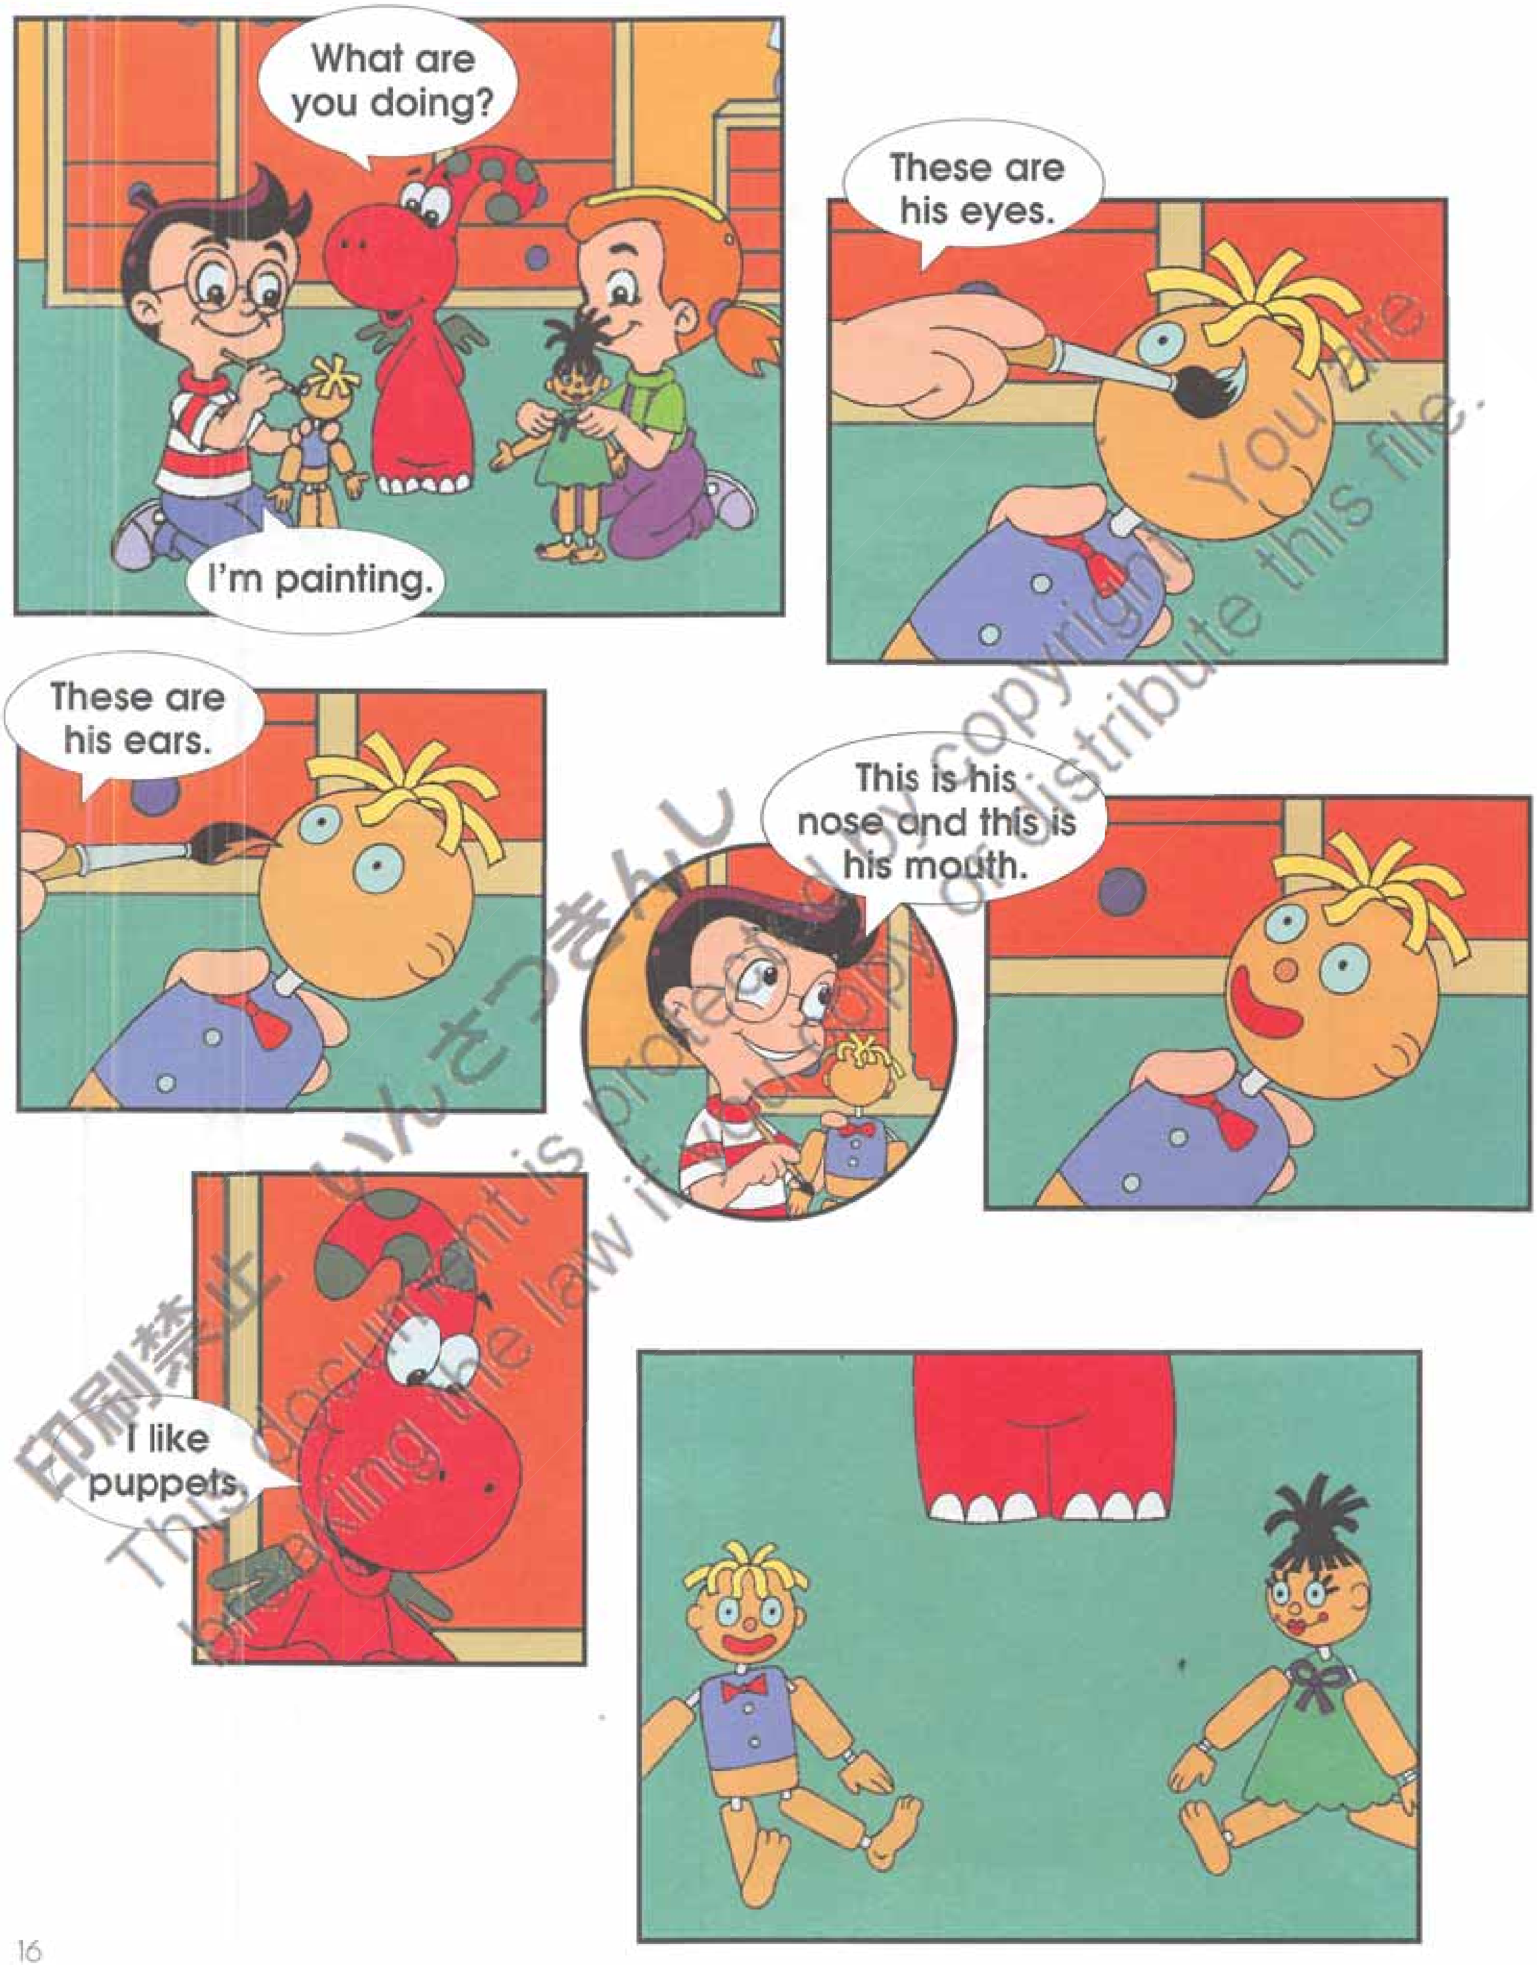
This is her head.
These are her arms.
What are these?
They're her hands. Thank you, Gogo.
These are her legs.
These are her feet.



What are you doing?
I'm painting.
These are his eyes.
These are his ears.
This is his nose and this is his mouth.
I like puppets.

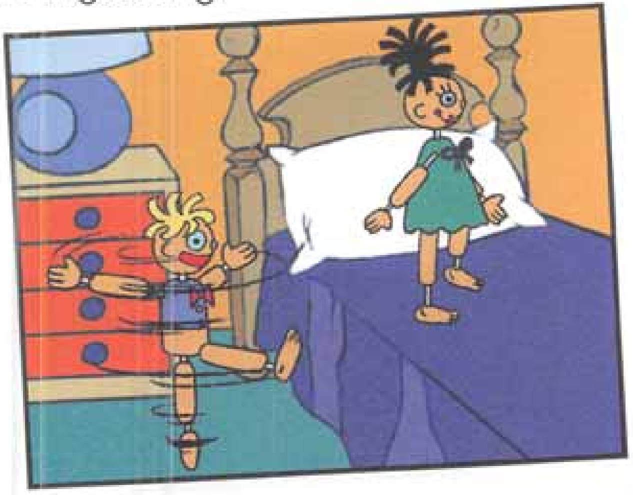
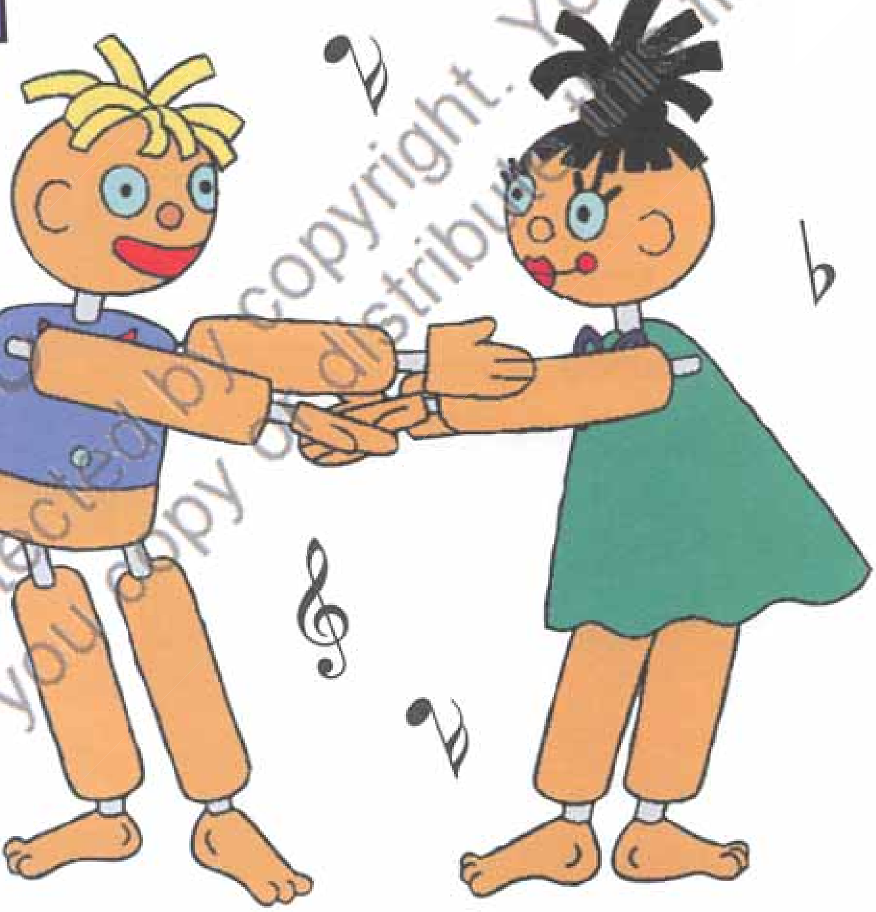
What are they doing?
They're sitting!
Gogo makes the puppets move.
Now they're standing. Can they dance, Gogo?
Watch!
They can sing, too. Listen.

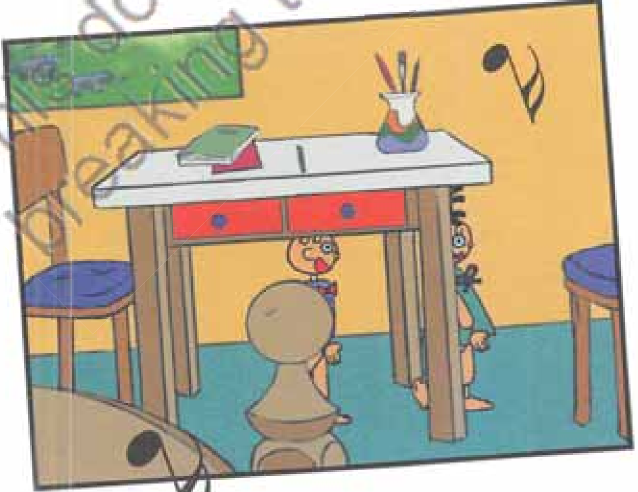
23 What are we doing?

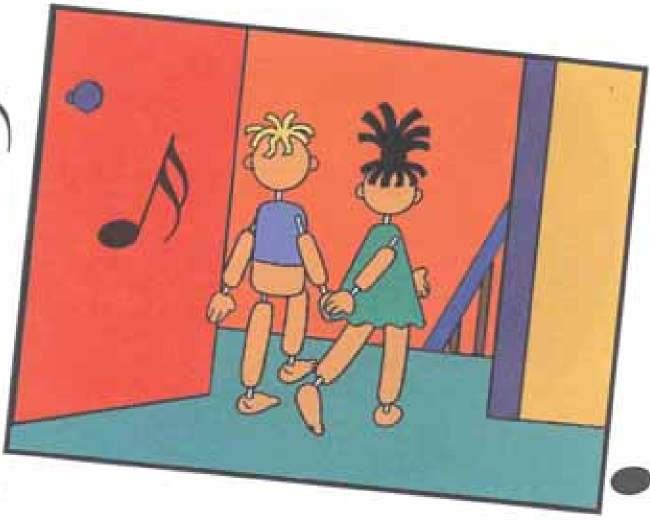
Let's sing a song.

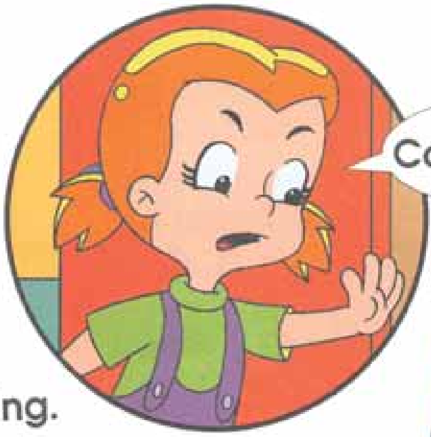


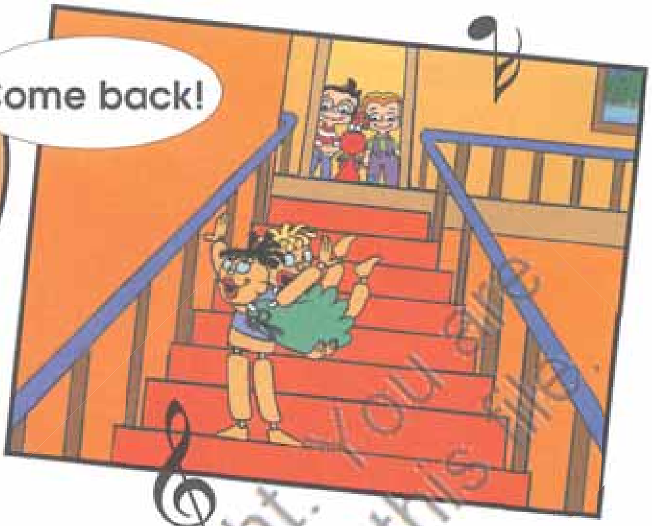
What are we doing?
We're singing and dancing.
What are we doing?
We're singing and dancing.
Under the table,
behind the chairs,
through the door
and down the stairs.



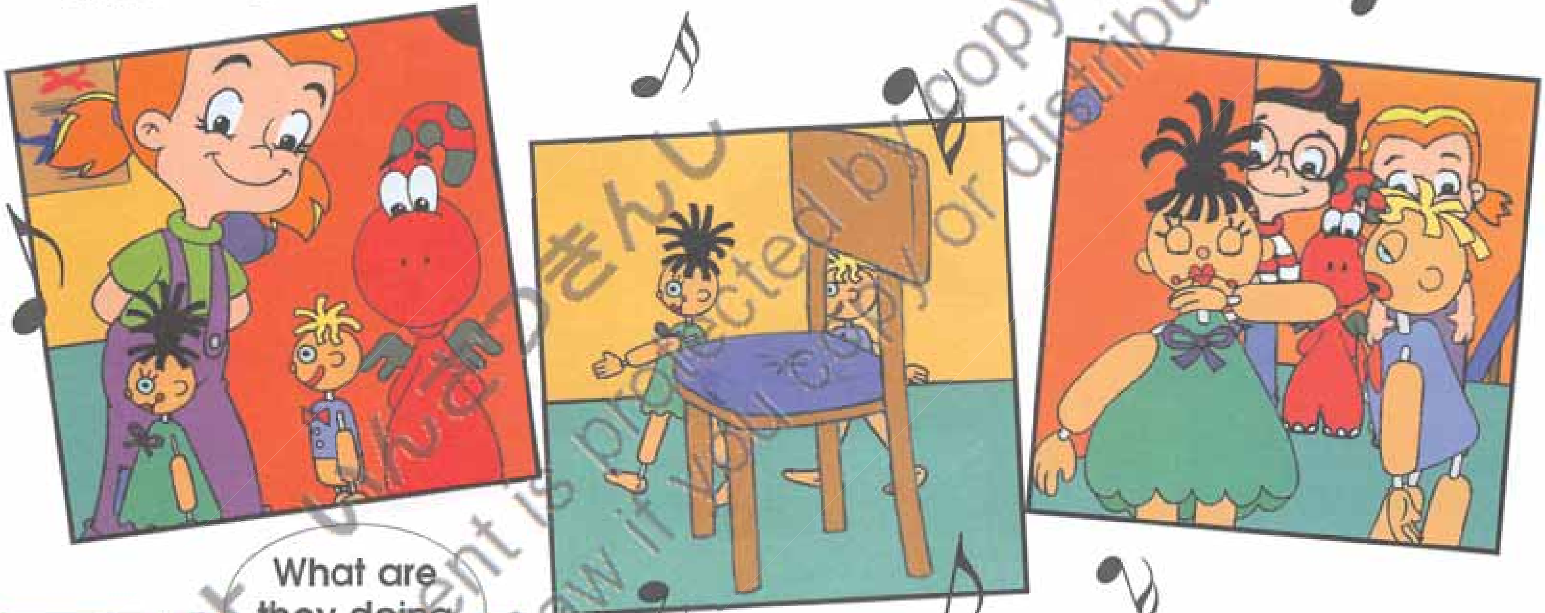


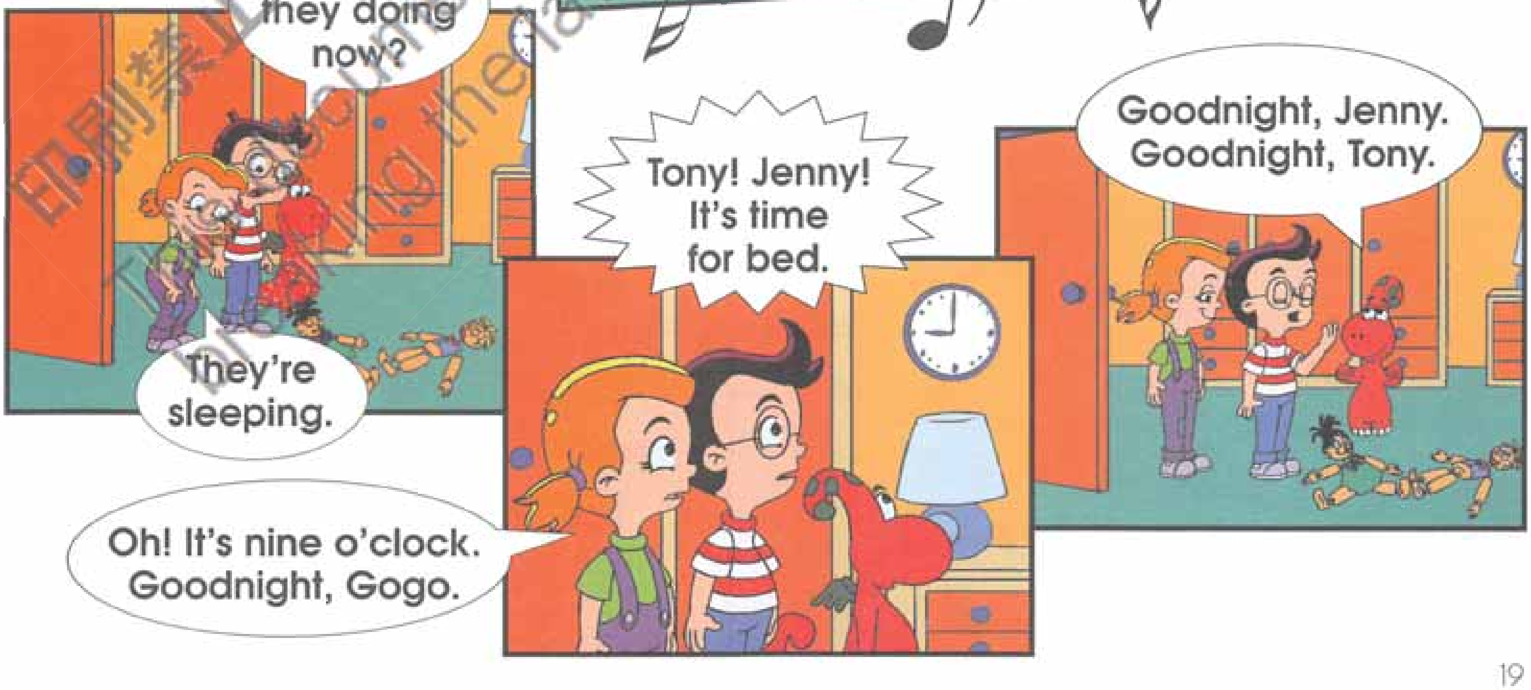






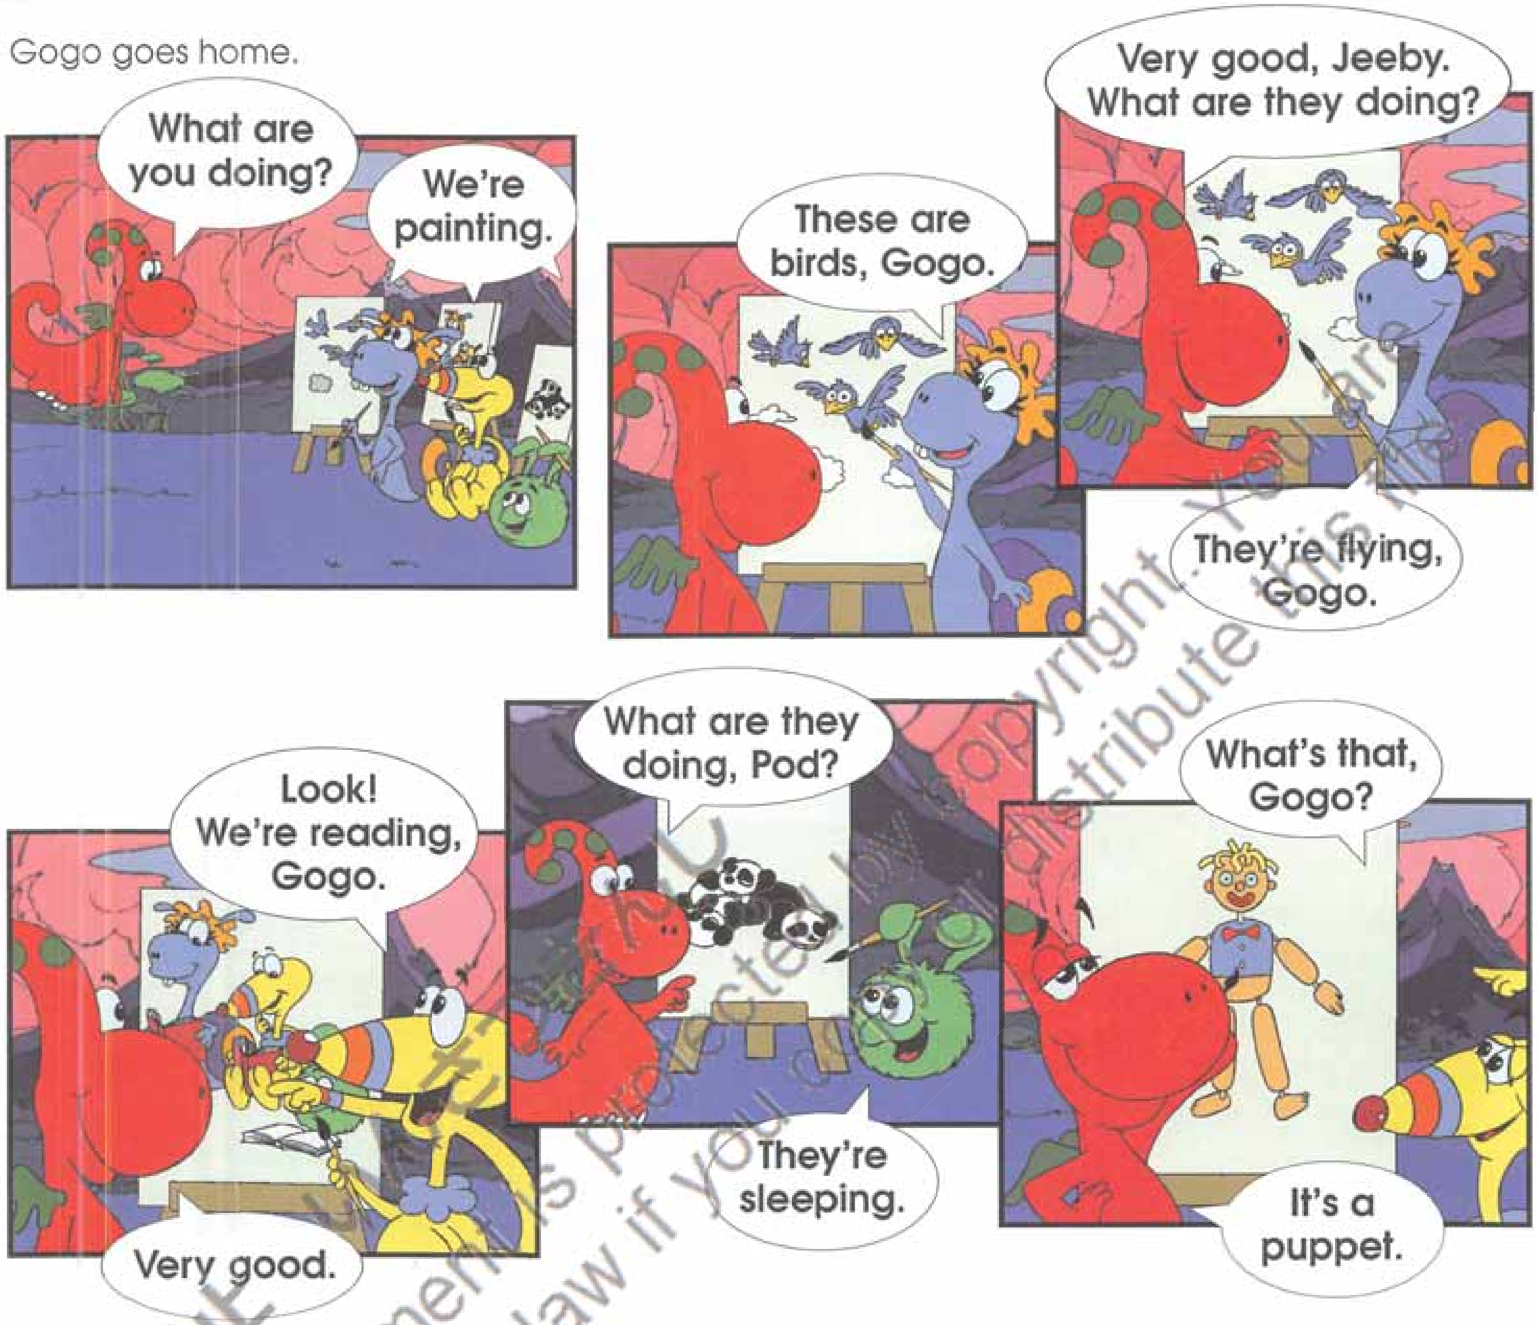
What are we doing?
We're singing and dancing.
What are we doing?
We're singing and dancing,
Up the stairs,
and through the door, behind the chairs, and on the floor.





What are they doing now?
They're sleeping.
Oh! It's nine o'clock. Goodnight, Gogo.
Tony! Jenny! It's time for bed.
Goodnight, Jenny. Goodnight, Tony.

Gogo goes home.



What are you doing?
We're painting.
These are birds, Gogo.
Very good, Jeeby. What are they doing?
They're flying, Gogo.
Look! We're reading, Gogo.
Very good.
What are they doing, Pod?
They're sleeping.
What's that, Gogo?
It's a puppet.

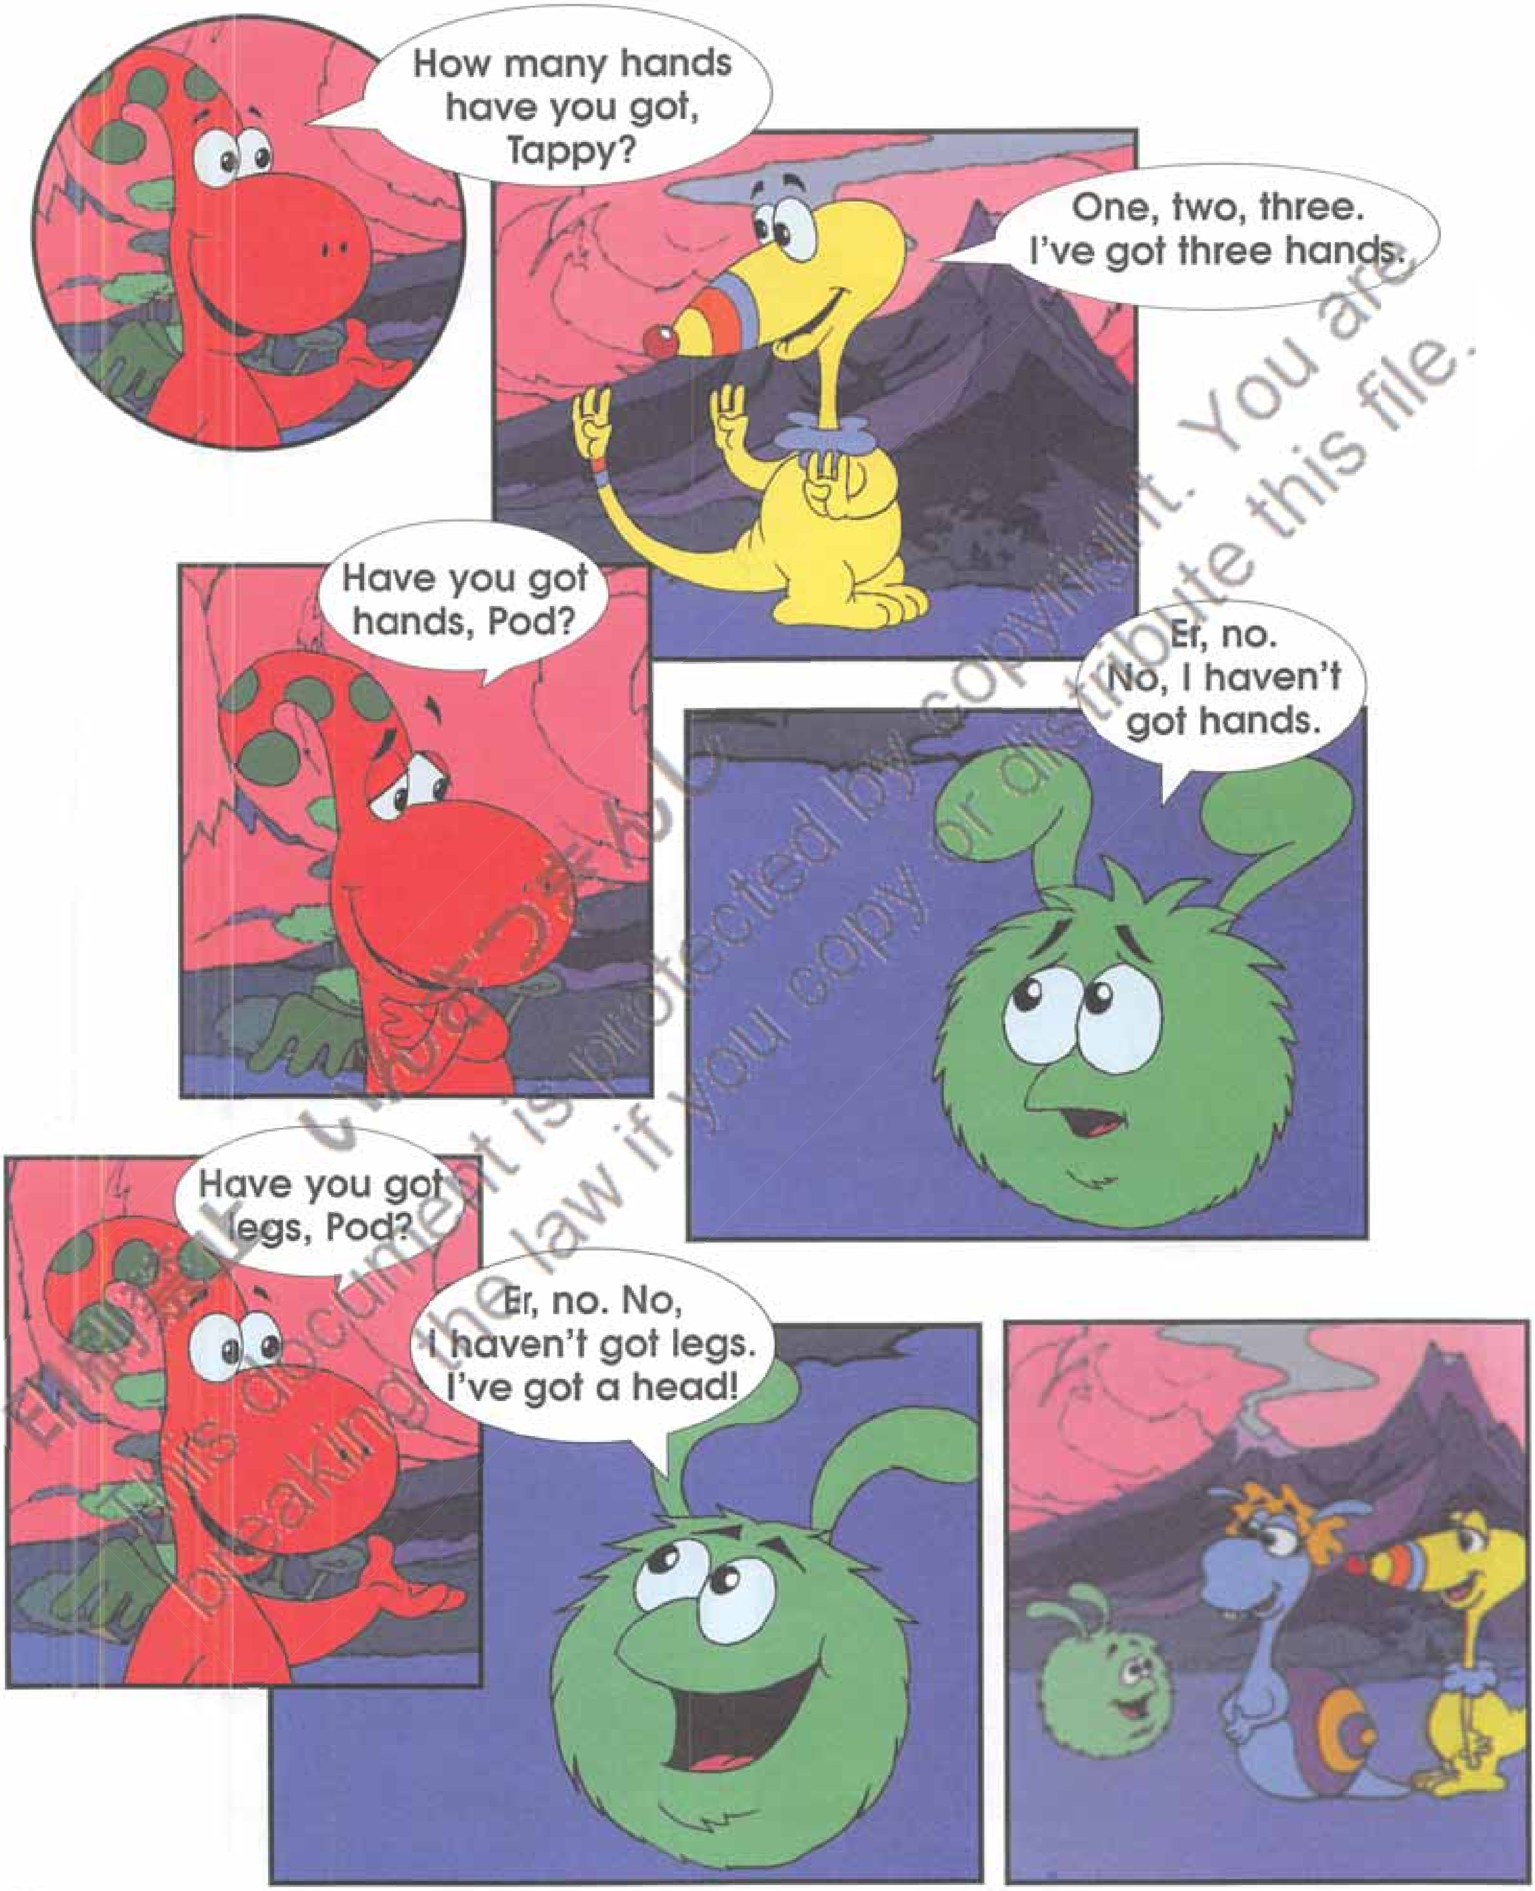
Have you got arms, Jeeby?
Yes, I have.
Have you got legs?
No, I haven't.
I've got eyes!
I've got eyes. I've got legs and I've got arms.
You haven't got ears!

Tappy is sad.



How many hands have you got, Tappy?
One, two, three. I've got three hands.
Have you got hands, Pod?
Er, no. No, I haven't got hands.
Have you got legs, Pod?
Er, no. No, I haven't got legs. I've got a head!
