

IELTS SPEAKING

LESSON 100

Part 1 Questions

What do you think is the best age to be?

Where do you wish to live when you are old?

What advice would you give to an older person who wants to feel young?

Some people say that youth is a state of mind, do you agree?

Part 2 Questions

Describe a teenager who you know.

You should say:

How old they are (how old he or she is)

How and where you met him or her

What you and this person do together

What kind of person he or she is (his or her personality) and explain how you feel about him or her or explain whether you like or dislike this person and why

Part 3 Questions

The Young and The Old

- ❖ Are young people generally more selfish than their parents and grandparents?
- ❖ Does age make you more aware of and caring for others?
- ❖ Should adults try to teach young people lessons, such as the dangers of drinking too much, taking drugs or catch the AIDS virus, or should they leave them alone to find out about these things themselves?
- ❖ Most countries give young people rights as they reach a certain age. For example, British people can legally make love or fight for their country at the age of 16; they can drink, vote and drive a car when they are 18. Do you think that any of the age limits need changing?
- ❖ Some people think you should give something to society before you have the right to join it. Should young people have to do some form of military or community service by law?

- ❖ Should people of between 50 and 55 be forced to retire from their jobs in order to make way for younger workers?

Students please do not hesitate to ask your coaches if there are things that you want to be clarified on.

Teachers, make sure that you have listened carefully to the student's answer. Make immediate corrections on any grammar mistakes committed. As you listen to the student's answer, make sure that you typed the sentences with errors and after the student said his/her answer make room for corrections.
