IELTS SPEAKING

LESSON 25

Part 1 Questions

Did you ever make anything by hand when you were a child?

Do children in your country often make things by hand?

Do you think it's very useful for children to make things by hand?

Is there anything that you would like to make by hand in the future?

Part 2 Questions

Something Special You Made Yourself

You should say:

What it was

Where and when you made it

How you made it

And explain why you made it yourself.

Part 3 Questions

Children and Making Things by Hand

What activities can stimulate children's creativity?

What benefits can children get from making things by hand?

When is the right time to teach children independence?

Which is better for children to learn, arts or languages?

Students please do not hesitate to ask your coaches if there are things that you want to be clarified on.

Teachers, make sure that you have listened carefully to the student's answer. Make immediate corrections on any grammar mistakes committed. As you listen to the student's answer, make sure that you typed the sentences with errors and after the student said his/her answer make room for corrections.
