

IELTS SPEAKING

LESSON 79

Part 1 Questions

- Did you visit art galleries as a student?
- Do you like visiting art galleries?
- Is there any art gallery that you would like to visit in the future?
- Should we encourage children to visit art galleries as a part of their studies?

Part 2 Questions

Talk about the professor whom you fear most.

You should say:

- Who he/she is
- When he/she became your professor
- What subject he/she taught
- What kind of professor he/she is
- Why you fear him/her most

Part 3 Questions

Discussion

- Should teachers be strict on their students? Why? Why not?
- What are the characteristics of a good teacher/professor?
- What kind of atmosphere at school is conducive for learning?
- Did you allow your classmates to copy your answers during exams?
Explain your answer.
- What do you think of parents giving their kids' teachers some presents?

Students please do not hesitate to ask your coaches if there are things that you want to be clarified on.

Teachers, make sure that you have listened carefully to the student's answer. Make immediate corrections on any grammar mistakes committed. As you listen to the student's answer, make sure that you typed the sentences with errors and after the student said his/her answer make room for corrections.
