IELTS SPEAKING

LESSON 94

Part 1 Questions

Do you like studying English?

Which do you prefer, American movies or British movies? Why?

Which language would you like to learn besides your native tongue and English?

Why are many people addicted to foreign movies and dramas?

Part 2 Questions

Talk about a foreign movie that you saw.

You should say:

- What it was about
- When/Where you saw it
- What you liked about it
- Explain the reason you remember that movie

Part 3 Questions

Language Learning

"Every child should learn to speak a second language." Do you agree?

Are you satisfied with the way languages are taught in your country?

Describe "the good language learner" according to the following criteria: woman or man, old or young, extrovert or introvert.

How do these characteristics affect learning: habits, abilities (including study skills), motivation and interests?

"Fluency in a language is more important than accuracy". Do you agree?

"Speaking a foreign language means being disloyal to your country". Do you agree?

Students please do not hesitate to ask your coaches if there are things that you want to be clarified on.

Teachers, make sure that you have listened carefully to the student's answer. Make immediate corrections on any grammar mistakes committed. As you listen to the student's answer, make sure that you typed the sentences with errors and after the student said his/her answer make room for corrections.
