You should say:

- What it was about
- When/Where you saw it
- What you liked about it
- Why it made you cry

Part 3 Questions

Actor from a movie

What do you think makes a good actor?

What are some of the characteristics that an actor needs to have?

Have movies changed over the years? How have they changed?

Do you think movies will continue to be popular with people in the future?

Are movies these days better than movies 30 or 40 years ago? Why?

What do you think of people who talk during movies at a movie theater?

Students please do not hesitate to ask your coaches if there are things that you want to be clarified on.

Teachers, make sure that you have listened carefully to the student's answer. Make immediate corrections on any grammar mistakes committed. As you listen to the student's answer, make sure that you typed the sentences with errors and after the student said his/her answer make room for corrections.
