HOW THE GRAMMAR WORKS:

I + "ADVERB OF DEGREE" + VERB PHRASE I really miss her.

I really/certainly/definitely don't miss waking up early in the morning.

I definitely can live without a mobile phone/ I can definitely live without one.

I definitely can't live without my favorite foods.

.........

LET'S PRACTICE. Work with a partner. Imagine you are on exchange. What do you miss? Use the expressions in step 1 and the vocabulary in step 2.

Example:

A: How's your stay in (the US)?

B: It's good, but I miss...

B: It's good. I don't miss... (in...). I miss.../I don't miss.../I can live without.../ I can't live without...

CONVERSATION MODEL

I REALLY MISS MY MOM'S COOKING.

SITUATION. Listen to the conversation.

SUBSTITUTION. Connect the phrases in the columns.

(1)

my favorite TV show the warm weather playing basketball

(2)

interesting programs fun sports sunny days

(3)

basketball California weather my favorite program

HOW THE PRONUNCIATION WORKS:

Don't stress short and unimportant words: lots of ⇒ lots a⇒ lotsa (in informal speech) there are ⇒ there're ⇒ there ə ⇒ thera (in informal speech)

PRACTICE. Work with a partner. Practice the conversation. Use the substitutions. Then use your own ideas.
