

Lesson 2 Dear Friend

It is fun to write letters and e-mails. It is also fun to get letters. If you send a letter to someone, maybe you will get one back! Write the name of each part of this friendly letter.

Dear Grandma,

Dad just told me your news. I am so sad to hear that Fluffy is sick. You must be sad, too.

I remember when Fluffy was a kitten. She used to chase my feet!

Once, I was sitting at the dinner table. Fluffy jumped up on my lap under the table. She missed my lap, but got my napkin. I got the giggles when I saw her dragging that napkin out of the room.

I hope Fluffy is feeling better by the time you get this letter.

Love,
Jennifer

Plan a letter or e-mail to a friend or classmate. Think about what the person is interested in. What does he or she know about? Write some notes here to help plan what you might write about.

Now, write your letter on the next page. Remember to include all four parts of a friendly letter. Use your best handwriting.

Lesson 2 Dear Friend

It is fun to write letters and e-mails. It is also fun to get them. If you write a letter to someone, maybe you will get one back. Write the name of a friend or family member on the line.

Dear _____,

Did you know that your name is important? My name is _____ and my friend's name is _____.

I remember when I was a little girl, I was named _____.

Once I was sitting on the floor and I was thinking about my name. I got the biggest when I was _____.

My name is _____.

Now write your letter or e-mail to a friend or classmate. What do you want to tell them? What does he or she know about you? Write some notes to help you. What do you want to write about?

Now write your letter or e-mail on the next page. Remember to include all the information you need to write your letter.