

Lesson 4 Write a Book Review

Think of books you have read. Write their titles on the lines below.

Funny BooksSad or Scary Books

Exciting BooksInteresting Books

Look at the books you named. Which one do you think someone your age would like the best? Draw a star beside its title.

Think of good reasons why someone your age should read this book. Finish the sentences below. Write the least important reason first. Save the most important reason for last.

You will like _____

because _____

You will also like _____

because _____

The most important reason you will like _____ is because _____

Lesson 4 Write a Book Review

Write a book review on the lines below. Try to convince a person your age to read the book you chose. State your opinion. Use linking words to join your opinion with reasons. Save your most important reason for last. End with a strong statement about the book.

Questions to Ask About Opinion Writing

- Did you state your opinion?
- Did you give good reasons for your opinion?
- Did you use linking words?
- Did you write a strong ending?
- Does each sentence have a complete thought?
- Does each sentence begin with a capital letter and end with an end mark?

